U.S.-Anglo Relations Improve With Talks

New Tremor Jolts San Francisco, Bay Area

Dresses, Cash Missing

$2,200 in Stock Taken; $30 at Store

Theft of approximately 250 women's dresses—valued at $2,200—from a Smith Avenue manufacturing firm, and another of $30 from a downtown food market were reported to police early today.

Teachers' Wages At Saugerties To Increase $400

Salaries for most teachers in the Saugerties Central School System will be increased by $400 for the coming year, by action of the Saugerties board of education this week, it was announced by Dr. Grant D. Morse, superintendent of Saugerties schools.

The board of education adopted a new salary schedule with a minimum of $4,000 for the AB degree and a maximum of $6,600. For the MA degree, the minimum is $4,300 and the maximum, $6,900.

According to one provision of the salary schedule, the granting of salaries above the 10th step shall be at the discretion of the board of education and based on evidence of merit and achievement on the part of each teacher concerned. The 10th step on the schedule calls for $5,800 for teachers with an AB degree and $6,100 for teachers with a Master's degree.

Most of the faculty members in the local system will not receive salaries in line with the step on the schedule to which their experience might entitle them. To have accomplished that, increases of more than $400 would have been necessary, Dr. Morse said.

The board approved the securing of Dr. Anthony Terino, chief of the Bureau of Secondary School Supervision, State Education Department, who will speak at the In-Service Training Program of the Central School faculty here on September 30.

Approval was given by the Board for the repair and replacement of the sewerage at the Glasco School. This project will cost $9,000.

Some Firms Plagued by Surpluses

New York, March 23 (AP)—Surpluses plagued businessmen in several lines this week.

With spring in the air and hopes for a business pickup riding high, there was talk of too much aluminum, too much food, too much cloth, too many appliances, too many medium-priced cars, too much gasoline and too much oil.

Cutbacks were announced at a number of key spots. Demands were heard for tighter curbs on imports.

Will Plant Less

Farmers told the Department of Agriculture they intend to plant 334 million acres of major crops this year. That's 3 1/2 per cent below 1956 and the smallest acreage devoted to important crops since 1917. Barring a sudden rise in yields per acre, the reduction could push farm prices up.

Sharp reductions in the maximum permissible production of oil were decreed by conservation agencies in Texas and Louisiana. With the European oil crisis nearing its end, the Texas oil "allowable" for April will be reduced by more than 224,000 barrels a day.

Steel producers cut back a little this week; scheduled output of 2,392,000 tons was the lowest so far this year and 2.3 per cent below the like week last year. Behind the curtailment: falling demand for automotive steel.

Picture Is Mixed

In Detroit, the industry picture was mixed. Production of some makes was trimmed sharply while others produced to the hilt. Among those stepping on the gas: Ford, Plymouth and Chevrolet. Slowing down this week were many of the leading medium-priced makes: Buick, Oldsmobile, Pontiac, Mercury.

Best news for auto retailers was the greatly improved balance between sales and production. New car inventories on March 1 were slightly higher than 729,000 as against 903,789 at the same time last year. Even so, with the advent of the peak spring season the accent in most auto showrooms would be on the "hard sell."

Trimming Rates

Elsewhere on the business front, the first week of spring brought the first signs of a possible easing of the tight-money situation. Dealers in bankers' acceptances (short-term loans for financing shipments of goods) (Continued on Page 3, Col. 7)

30 Injured, Damage Is Spread Out

Friday's Quake Worst Since 1906

San Francisco, March 23 (AP)—A sharp aftershock of yesterday's big earthquake series jolted San Francisco and the bay area early today.

A three-alarm fire in midtown San Francisco followed on the heels of the tremor that jolted many residents out of their sleep shortly after midnight. But Asst. Fire Chief Bruno Bassi said the fire "was probably not" caused by the quake.

Is Less Severe

The aftershock, followed by several less severe, hit at 12:14 a. m. Yesterday's quakes jolted San Francisco and the bay area, injuring 30 persons and causing minor but widespread damage almost impossible to assess.

Chief Bassi said the first alarm came eight minutes after the 12:14 shock was reported.

Fire Route 50

He listed the cause officially as "unknown" pending an investigation later today. Fifty persons were routed and three suffered slight injuries in the fire.

Father John Weber, S. J., seismologist at Santa Clara University said this morning's aftershock had a richter magnitude of 4.

Yesterday's tremor was the worst since the disastrous 1906 quake here.

Tall buildings and the great bridge spanning the Golden Gate swayed. In south San Francisco and adjacent Daly City plate glass windows shattered and supermarket shelves spilled their goods onto floors. Slides blocked parts of State Route 1 along the ocean.

Most Are Weak

That was the result of two rapid-fire heavy shocks at 11:45:20 a. m. after shocks continued throughout the afternoon and night. At 11:30 p. m., the seismograph at the University of California—across the bay in Berkeley—had recorded 49. Most of those were so weak you couldn't feel them.

Bill Would Keep O & W Running As CD Facility

Albany, N. Y., March 23 (AP)—Legislation has been introduced that would authorize the State Civil Defense Commission to keep the bankrupt New York, Ontario and Western Railroad operating as an "essential" facility.

A bill submitted Thursday by the Assembly Rules Committee would appropriate a million dollars to finance the plan. U. S. District Judge Sylvester Ryan has ordered the freight line to cease operations at midline March 29. For months, state and community representatives have tried to sell the railroad as an operating "entity" instead of junk.

The measure would empower the commission to "take all necessary steps for continuing operations" of the railroad. The 554-mile line operates between Oswego, N. Y., and Weehawken, N. J. There is a spur to Scranton, Pa.

Million Workers on Strike At Britain's Key Plants

London, March 23 (AP)—A strike of one million workers in Britain's key heavy industries began officially at noon today.

Thousands of industrial workers already had jumped the gun on the strike deadline by failing to report for work last night.

The walkout started only a few hours after settlement of a menacing railroad labor dispute and announcement that a strike by 20,000 shipyard workers may soon be ended.

Unions representing the industrial workers plan a progressive expansion of their walkout to close down 4,300 plants employing three million men by April 6 unless there is an intervening settlement of demands for a 10 per cent pay

Arab Okay Hinted on Arbiters

UN Chief, Nasser Continue Talks

Cairo, March 23 (AP)—UN Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld met again with President Nasser today on the complex problems still plaguing the Middle East.

Accompanied by his deputy, Ralph Bunche, the secretary general went to Nasser's rest home on the Nile eight miles from Cairo for talks that were expected to continue throughout the day. The discussions were expected to cover the continuing controversial issues of the Suez Canal, the Gaza strip, the Gulf of Aqaba and the deployment of the UN Emergency Force (UNEF).

Talks With Fawzi

Hammarskjöld arrived here Thursday and held an opening six-hour session with Nasser. Yesterday he continued his talks with Egyptian Foreign Minister Mahmoud Fawzi.

The usually well-informed weekly newspaper Akhbar El Yom predicted today the talks would end in some understanding "despite the general pessimism prevailing."

It predicted that Israel eventually would yield to proposals that UNEF contingents be stationed on both sides of the Gaza-Israeli border and that the Gulf of Aqaba dispute would be referred to the world court.

Egypt earlier was reported favorable to the creation of an advisory body to arbitrate disputes over the Suez Canal.

Realize Problems

Both Hammarskjöld and the Egyptians are acutely aware that any solutions of the big problems will have to run the gamut of both Western and Arab demands. And they know that what satisfies the West must not appear to Arabs as a surrender.

As outlined here, the problem with the canal being reopened progressively to shipping of increasing size, is to guarantee the users' rights without challenging Egyptian sovereignty.

Diplomatic sources said Nasser is agreeable to the creation of an advisory body to serve as fact-finder and arbiter on canal problems, but the big question is whom this body would represent.

One of Principles

An arbitration body, not spelled out in detail, was included in the "six principles" for settling the canal dispute on which Egypt and the UN agreed. (Continued on Page 3, Col. 5)

$672,712 Is Bid For Route 32 Job To Esopus Line

A low bid of $672,712 from the Callanan Road Improvement Co., South Bethlehem, was received Thursday for widening and resurfacing a 7.40-mile section of Route 32 in Ulster county, it was announced by State Superintendent of Public Works John W. Johnson.

The work includes a section of road starting at the Kingston city line and extending southward through Rosendale to the Rosendale-Esopus town line (Wallkill River). Three bids were received.

The existing 20-foot wide concrete road will be widened to a minimum of 24 feet and resurfaced with asphalt concrete. Sections where steel grades exist will be provided with an extra 10-foot wide climbing lane.

Included in the project will be alterations and additions to existing drainage structures and facilities, erection of cable guide railing, landscaping and miscellaneous other related work.

Work is expected to get under way in about a month, following a check by State engineers of all bids received. If the low bid is declared acceptable after this review, a formal award of the contract will be made and necessary contract forms will be processed. The time lapse between receipt of bids and contract execution is normally three weeks.

Scheduled for completion by July 1, 1958, all work will be under the supervision of Kurt C. Rauer, acting district engineer in charge of the department's district office in Poughkeepsie.

Traffic on Route 32 will be maintained during construction.

Realtors for Planning Favor City Appropriation of $25,750

A resolution favoring appropriation by the city of $25,750 for preparation of a master plan for Kingston was unanimously adopted by the Ulster County Real Estate Board Friday night at its regular monthly meeting.

Seeks Master Plan

In a statement issued following the meeting it was explained that a resolution had been passed "favoring appropriation of $25,750 by the city to defray cost of a planning consultant firm to prepare a master plan for the city."

"The board feels such a plan is long overdue and that no time can be lost in coordination of an overall plan with the rapid growth and expansion of the city and its environs. No city can set back and let progress march through helter-skelter and unplanned. Either a city will be passed over or left in an uncoordinated shambles."

Move Called Vital

"Kingston, to achieve its proper share of this new era in the Hudson Valley and to stand out as a city to be desired and well-heralded, should have a master plan as do all businesses which are keeping pace with the fast growth of the area."

"The Ulster County Real Estate Board endorses the master plan as a blueprint of progress."

Edward O'Connor, acting president in the absence of Fred Dirks, presided.

Teamster Probers Called Deceitful

St. Louis, March 23 (AP)—Policy makers representing 450,000 members of the Teamsters Union last night assailed the Senate rackets investigation as "unjust and deceitful."

The charge was leveled by the 49-member Policy Committee of the Teamsters' National Warehouse Division, embracing nearly one-third of the union's 1 1/2 million members. Earlier, behind doors closed to the press, members of the committee and other leaders had heard speeches by two indicted Teamster vice presidents, James R. Hoffa and Frank W. Brewster.

The Policy Committee, in a statement, condemned what it called "the methods of the McClellan Committee in using unsavory and untrustworthy persons as witnesses against our international union without possibility of cross examination or direct reply."

'Yellow Objects' May Be Clue to Fate of 67, Plane

Tokyo, March 23 (AP)—A U. S. Navy destroyer plowed through choppy seas tonight to investigate a report of "yellow objects" as a possible clue to the fate of 67 Americans aboard a military transport that vanished yesterday off the coast of Japan.

Officials conducting what was described as the greatest air-sea search in Far East history said there was no evidence that the objects were connected with the missing four-engine C-97.

The big plane, on a trans-Pacific flight from California to Japan, carried yellow life rafts, yellow "Mae West" life jackets and packets of yellow dye marker. Air force officials cautioned that the area where the objects were reported was about 100 miles south of the plane's last reported course and that yellowish sea weed often is mistaken for life jackets or rafts.

But a spokesman added that every report was being checked thoroughly and "will continue to be thoroughly checked as long as the search continues."

The missing C-97, version of the Boeing Stratocruiser, carried 57 passengers, including a woman military dependent, and a crew of 10. The crew included two women members of the Air Force. The other passengers were 27 Air Force, 17 Army and 10 Navy men and 2 civilian government employees, both men.

New Yorkers aboard the plane are Army Pvt. Richard D. Aiken of Groton, Tompkins county, and Navy Radioman Francis P. Bork of Buffalo.

Ike Move On Pact Is Key Point

Secrecy Is Rule At Closing Parley

Tucker's Town, Bermuda March 23 (AP)—President Eisenhower and Prime Minister Macmillan worked to wind up their fast-moving Bermuda conference today with evidence that the worst wounds in British-American relations had been healed and a working partnership in world affairs restored.

Officials said there was a possibility the two western leaders would hold a final meeting tomorrow morning, but it was hoped the main work could be concluded by tonight. Eisenhower plans to leave for Washington tomorrow, but it had not been decided whether he will go by plane or sail aboard the U. S. guided missile cruiser Canberra.

Macmillan Remaining

Macmillan will remain here until the middle of next week to confer with Canadian Prime Minister Louis S. Laurent, who is to arrive Monday.

Strict secrecy was the rule for today's first session between Eisenhower, Macmillan and a restricted group of their advisers on military defense and atomic problems.

That plan was followed late yesterday when they opened the discussion of Britain's diminishing military position over the world and possible U. S. counter measures to maintain the free world's strength against Soviet power. Both British and American press officers were excluded from the conference room and went out to officials of both delegations that what was said on military matters was to be held in the strictest secrecy.

Split Largely Healed

Enough is known on the general progress of the talks, however, to provide support for the view of officials that the meeting has gone well and the split which developed between the United States and Britain last November over the invasion of Egypt has been largely closed.

The U. S. announcement yesterday of America's willingness to join the military committee of the Baghdad Pact was being interpreted here as evidence of agreement for close British-American collaboration on Middle East defense strategy against the Communist threat. Until the last two weeks the Eisenhower administration had not been willing to go beyond cooperation with the economic and anti-subversion committees of the Baghdad alliance.

Britain Wins Point

Along with the other pact members, Iran, Iraq, Turkey and Pakistan, the London government has long wanted the United States to join the Baghdad group as a full-fledged treaty member. Recently Britain has pressed hard for at least American military cooperation. Yesterday's announcement showed Britain had won that point.

While the move was hailed by the members of the alliance, it (Continued on Page 3, Col. 6)

Downtown Man Is Fair After Being Struck by Auto

Arthur Borgwardt, 59, of 120 Hasbrouck Avenue, who was struck by a car on Broadway early Friday evening, was reported in "apparently fair" condition today at Kingston Hospital.

Police received a call at 5:25 p. m. from George Shively, owner of Old Capital Motors, Inc., 300 Broadway, that a man had been struck by a car in front of his automobile agency.

Officers Harold DeCraff and Anthony Turk, who investigated, reported Mr. Borgwardt was struck by a 1952 sedan, owned and operated by John Terpening, 30, of 119 Newkirk Avenue.

Knocked to Pavement

They reported the Terpening vehicle was headed south on Broadway, near Orchard Street, when Mr. Borgwardt was "struck and knocked to the pavement."

Mr. Borgwardt, who was removed to the hospital by Schultz ambulance, suffered injuries to his left eye, forehead, nose, chin and right side of face, the officers reported.

The Terpening car sustained a broken right headlight, the report said.

Simpson Funeral Home, 411 Albany avenue, Friday at 9:15 a. m.; thence to St. John's Church, Stony Hollow, where a Mass of requiem was offered for the repose of his soul by the Rev. Jeremiah Nemecek, pastor. Burial was in St. Mary's Cemetery.

Walter T. Henning
Walter T. Henning, 49, of RD 1, Katshaan, town of Saugerties, died at his home suddenly on Friday. Born in Germany, he was a carpenter employed with C. Hiltbrandt Dock Co. Mr. Henning was a member of the Carpenter's Union. He made his home with Alex Reinhard of Katshaan. Surviving are his father, Gustave of Hamburg, Germany, and two brothers, Hans and Max, both of Hamburg, Germany. Funeral will be held Monday at 2 p. m. from Hartley and Lamouree Funeral Home, 8 Second street, Saugerties. Burial will be in Mt. View Cemetery. Friends may call Sunday afternoon and evening.

Augustus R. Coffey
The funeral of Augustus R. Coffey, of 357 Mt. Hope boulevard, Hastings-on-Hudson, was held yesterday morning from the Henry J. Bruck Funeral Home, 27 Smith avenue, at 9:15 a. m. thence to St. Joseph's Church where a high Mass of requiem was offered for the repose of his soul at 10 o'clock by the Rev. Thomas Hession, assistant pastor of Our Lady of Grace Church, Hoboken, N. J., who is a cousin of Mr. Coffey. Responses to the Mass were sung by the children's choir assisted at the organ by Mrs. Frank Rafferty. At the conclusion of the Mass Mrs. Rafferty played the "National Anthem" in honor of the veteran of World War I. While the body reposed in the funeral home many relatives and friends called. On Thursday evening the Rev. Alfred P. Glancy called and led those assembled in the recitation of the Holy Rosary. The burial was in St. Mary's Cemetery where Father Hession assisted by Father Glancy gave the final blessing. At the conclusion of the services at the grave, the firing squad from the 156th Field Artillery Battalion of the N. Y. National Guard, which consisted of CWO Thomas W. Miller, CWO John G. Reynolds, SP-3 Robert Motrie, M-Sgt. Walter T. Bundy, M-Sgt. Edio G. Ferrari and SFC William J. Ferguson, fired a volley over the grave of Comrade Coffey. The flag was then folded and presented to the widow Mrs. Coffey. The bearers were John A. Scully, William H. McNamee, Peter Schick, Harold A. Sanford, Joseph J. Murphy and Matthew J. Reynolds.

Shokan
Shokan, March 23—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Longyear, former residents of Kingston, who for many years made their home in Phelps, are touring in Florida. Mrs. Longyear is the former Rose Kember of West Shokan. Postmaster Betsy Vonder Osten reports that a new clock has been installed in the Post Office.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Lyons of Monroe were recent callers at the local museum of antiquities. Also visiting the exhibit were Judge Roger Loughran and wife of Hurley and Mrs. Martin Schlotter and sister, Helen Bowne of Saugerties.

Estella Karn, who died March 13 maintained a summer home along the mountainside at the West Shokan for many years. Miss Karn and her associate broadcaster, Mary Margaret McBride had their retreat along the Bushkill hill road.

The Bernard Caslenbas, summer residents are vacationing at St. Petersburg, Fla.

More Than Generous
Danville, Ky. (AP)—A local farmer touched by appeals in behalf of flood victims in Eastern Kentucky, was more generous than he planned. After drawing money from the bank to pay a bill, he pocketed the cash. His wife, also generous and a fast worker when on a project, was packing clothes for refugees and persuaded her husband to surrender his trousers. When the clothing reached Mrs. R. E. Wortham, she found the trousers and the wallet with $158. She telephoned the owner that the money was being returned.

Social Agencies Group Hears Talk On Handicapped

Assistance available to the physically handicapped through the New York State Education Department, Division of Vocational Rehabilitation was outlined by Stephen Puff of the regional office at the recent luncheon meeting of the Ulster County Council of Social Agencies at First Baptist Church, Albany avenue.

Mr. Puff, who was introduced by George Johnson has just been assigned to this district.

Explains Aid
Mr. Puff explained the New York State Education law which covers the vocational rehabilitation program. He said persons over 14 years of age are eligible to receive the services, some of which include vocational counseling and guidance, therapeutic treatment, corrective surgery and hospitalization, vocational training, employment training and psychiatric treatment.

The speaker said eligible persons may be referred by any agency. This public service is designed to restore, develop or improve the working ability of handicapped individuals to the point where they can become satisfactorily employed or self supporting. The division aids where necessary in the medical diagnosis, medical, surgical, psychiatric or hospital treatment. They give aid such as limbs, braces, hearing aid, etc., as well as graduate work therapy and muscle reeducation training for job, books, transportation.

Mr. Puff asked the cooperation of the 25 agency representatives present at the meeting.

Laud Miss Murphy
Members attending the meeting paid special tribute to Miss Katherine M. Murphy, recently named "Citizen of the Year" by the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Joyce-Schirick Post No. 1386. Congratulations were tendered Miss Murphy by a committee including Miss Clare Kelly, of Catholic Charities; Gerald Shampo of the Children's Home and Mrs. Frederic W. Holcomb, Sr., vice-president of the Council.

Mr. Johnson expressed appreciation to Miss Murphy for her outstanding participation in the organization of the council and for the enthusiastic support of the group for which she is known. He presented her with an attractive floral arrangement and an appropriately inscribed card containing the citation for services in the Council of Social Agencies.

Modena

Modena, March 23—Plans are complete for the smorgasbord to be served Saturday, March 30, by members of Plattekill Lions Club at Oddo's Inn. Fred A. Fowler is chairman of general arrangements. The supper will be served at 6:30.

The sermon at the Lenten service to be held Sunday, March 31, at the associate parishes of Modena and Clintondale, will be on the text, "Belonging to the Way." The Rev. John E. Swords is pastor of the church.

Mrs. Joseph Simmons was counselor for the senior group of Modena Methodist Fellowship members at the meeting Sunday evening with the topic "Mission Field U.S.A." being discussed.

Mrs. Walter Lofink was counselor for the intermediate group, subject of the meeting, "What Really Happened."

The commission on membership and evangelism of Modena Methodist Church was held Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Emmett Hyatt, at Clintondale.

The Rev. John E. Swords, dean and chairman of the Christian Workers School, conducted in Highland Methodist Church, with the final session being Tuesday, April 9, announces that there is an official enrollment of 74 at the school.

A special meeting was called Monday evening at the home of Herbert A. Winter by members of the commission on finance, for all those concerned in bringing the church's financial program on a firm footing.

A son, born March 7, to Mr. and Mrs. George Winfield of New Paltz, has been named Robert Knox. Mrs. Winfield is the former Margery Chambers of Modena.

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Bernard and children, Sharon Lee and Donald of Poughkeepsie, visited relatives here in Gardiner Sunday.

The Nicholson family have vacated the house of Harold Lucy, south of Modena village. Modena firemen responded to an alarm sent in Monday about 130 a. m. to a farm house, on the former Nunziata farm, north of Modena. It was reported a fire damaged the interior of the frame-constructed house.

Clintondale firemen reached the scene first, and had the fire under control, when the Modena unit arrived, it was reported. The many occupants of the house escaped injury, and an estimate of damage was not reported.

Emmet Hyatt has opened his newly constructed greenhouse, west of the Thruway overpass at Ardonia, on Route 44-55.

'Yellow Objects'
than 70 planes and a dozen ships had made a crisscross search of 75,000 square miles of the squall-ridden Pacific without a confirmed trace of the plane.

The plane's last radio message, at 37 minutes after midnight, said it was 230 miles southeast of Tokyo. There was no report of trouble and the pilot said he expected to land at Tokyo International Airport at 2 a. m. Tokyo time.

"Whatever happened to it had to be sudden," an experienced airman said. "There was no distress signal. The (radio) operator could have at least tied down his key even in a case of a sudden emergency."

The plane's last report said it was flying at 8,000 feet. Even in the event of serious engine trouble, it presumably would have stayed aloft several minutes in a glide.

The absence of any distress signal prompted some airmen to believe the plane may have exploded in flight—a theory that was supported briefly early today when an army man on maneuvers reported he saw "a flash of light or an explosion" off Japan's east coast.

Air force officials said a search pilot, Capt. Charles I. Johnson of Warden, Wash., spotted "considerable unidentified debris" in the general area, including a red object which might have been a signal flare case. The pilot said the rest of the debris looked like the usual flotsam that dots oceans and that the red object, if a flare case, could have been dropped by search planes or have come from other sources.

New Tremor

ened by a sharp jolt at 12:14 a. m. The center of the quakes appeared to be in the Daly City area, where more than 30,000 people reside.

Extend 100 Miles
But the tremors extended nearly 100 miles eastward to Sacramento, the state capital, and 75 miles southward to Hollister, below San Jose at the base of the San Francisco peninsula.

The quakes originated in the San Andreas fault. San Francisco sits on the edge of the fault, which runs diagonally from the Salton Sea area of Southern California through California and into the Pacific off the Oregon coast.

The major quake had a Richter magnitude rating of 5.5 compared with 8.25 for the 1906 quake. The scale progresses on a logarithmic pattern, meaning that a rating of 2 is 10 times as great as 1 and 3 is 100 times as great as 1. Hence, yesterday's quake was one one-hundredth of the 1906 convulsion.

Reservoirs Cracked
But it was violent enough to alarm the entire region. And destructive enough to cause cumulative damage probably ranging into the millions. In addition to minor damage to countless homes and visual road damage, several reservoirs were cracked.

Schools in southern San Francisco were emptied for the day. At San Jose, 50 miles south of here, plaster fell in the old Santa Clara courthouse. There the tremor exerted a brief but rolling movement.

In Daly City, Police Chief Roland Petrocchi put into effect emergency disaster measures. The chief, at home when the quake hit, said:

Knocked Across Room
"The shock knocked me across the room, broke all the windows in my home and turned the refrigerator upside down."

Later, after a quick inspection tour of the community, he reported: "Things are in a hell of a mess out here."

Toppled water heaters flooded homes. Dishes jumped from shelves and shattered. Emergency calls went out to householders to shut off gas when some gas lines snapped.

The Red Cross informed San Francisco and suburban officials it was ready with beds, blankets, food and shelter in 88 schools, 44 churches and other large buildings.

Some of the most spectacular damage was along the normally placid shores of Lake Merced in southwest San Francisco. Huge chunks of Lake Merced blvd., a four-lane highway encircling the lake, tumbled into the water and created waves three feet high.

20 Scattered Fires
There were 20 small but scattered fires. More than 50 alarms were reported but most were false or set off by the quake itself.

Most of the 30 persons injured were bruised or cut by falling, or being thrown against objects. No serious injuries were reported.

But there were plenty of frightened people. The telephone systems in San Francisco and Marin county, to the north, were jammed immediately, near panic conditions were reported in various places.

Mayor George Christopher went on the radio asking persons to "please stay off the telephone. No one has anything to fear."

"The police and fire departments and other vital services are on the job," he said.

Arabs Okay . . .
peared agreed last October before the British-French and Israeli invasion of Egypt.

Hammarskjold reportedly suggested originally that some organization of users of the canal consult with Egypt on the question of how canal tolls shall be paid, how the waterway shall be maintained and improved, and other problems. Nasser is said to have agreed in principle, but there is still no meeting of minds on exactly who are the users.

Insists on Tolls
Nasser has insisted that full payment of canal tolls must be made to Egypt, but has indicated he might agree to set aside a specific fund for maintenance.

Nasser objects to the Suez Canal Users' Association (SCUA) set up in London last August by 18 countries primarily shippers. Egypt contends this body is dominated by Britain and France and should be broadened to include other non-shipping countries whose economies depend heavily on the canal, such as Saudi Arabia.

Would Exclude Israel
Informants said Nasser's formula calls for adding these countries to those who sent ships through the canal in 1953. This would push the number of users up into the 50s. It also would exclude Israel.

As discussed by Hammarskjold and Fawzi in somewhat vague terms, the users would be recognized by Egypt for bargaining on such points as tolls and user interests. It also would cooperate with Egypt in establishing the factfinding and arbitration body.

On Gaza, Egypt thus far has gone along with Hammarskjold's recommendation that Egypt presently not excise its Palestine armistice right to send a brigade of troops into the area. UN raised no objections to the restoration of Egyptian administration in the controversial strip 26 miles long and 8 miles wide. UNEF troops were redeployed from inside the strip to positions along the border with Israel.

Blizzards, Winds Hit New Mexico
Raton, N. M., March 23 (AP)—A howling northerner hit north-eastern New Mexico with a blizzard today, with winds to 83 miles per hour.

Raton Pass was reported closed, and U. S. 64-87 between Raton and Clayton was blocked by drifts reportedly five to seven feet deep.

Visibility fell to zero this morning as the blizzard shrieked in from Kansas and the Texas Panhandle.

A 45-foot house trailer hauled by a truck was flipped over by the winds at Hoxey's Corners about 75 miles south of here. There were no injuries reported.

Clayton itself was isolated by the closed highways, and all telephone circuits into Clayton were reported out of order since last night.

was certain to bring an opposite reaction from Arab states that have bitterly denounced the pact's existence.

In Ankara, meanwhile, it was announced that the United States will offer financial help to several regional projects of the Baghdad pact. The announcement came in a communique winding up the visit to Turkey of James P. Richards, Eisenhower's special Middle East ambassador, and underlined Turkey's support of the President's Middle East program. It said Turkey and the United States agreed to cooperate against the threat of international communism.

Aid Not Specified
The communique did not specify what Baghdad pact projects the United States would aid and made no mention of the announcement that the United States is ready to join the pact's military committee.

Another sign of improved British-American understanding came earlier in a statement from British spokesman Peter Hood and U. S. spokesman James Hagerty after the main discussions on Middle East issues. They announced a "gratifying measure of agreement" had been found.

Holds Decision
Eisenhower was reported to be holding off on any Middle East decisions until the results of the current Cairo talks between UN Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold and Egyptian President Nasser become known. But the ground covered in the talks here included the whole range of complex Middle East issues. Topping the list were the Gaza Strip dispute, Suez Canal toll payments, freedom of shipping through the Tiran Strait to the Gulf of Aqaba and the possibility of pipelines to lessen dependence on the Suez Canal for delivery of Middle East oil.

Eisenhower and Macmillan were understood to have arranged for close consultation on the next moves if the Hammarskjold mission to Cairo fails.

have not responded to the letters of invitation will be contacted personally by a delegation of members.

Mr. Overbaugh said the Chamber of Commerce can continue to function with its present membership which is over 100. However, the income from the dues of 100 members is not enough to begin any new enterprises or initiate promotions for the progress of the community.

Stresses Growth
"If we are to keep stride with the growth of the town of Saugerties, we must initiate new programs and improve the old established policies," he said.

"Progressive measures for our merchants, industries, home owners and neighbors must not be the labor of only one-third of the township, it must be supported by everyone including individual citizens, who will gain as Saugerties expands and prospers," Mr. Overbaugh said.

Million Workers
two sides finally agreed yesterday to face-to-face negotiations. These will begin on Monday. Meanwhile the strike continues.

A possible clue to an acceptable compromise was provided yesterday when the National Union of Railwaymen, representing 370,000 men, and the government commission which runs the railroads agreed on a 5 per cent wage decrease. The railwaymen, like the shipyard and industrial workers, had demanded a 10 per cent wage boost.

The average weekly wage for shipyard workers also is $36.24. Railway worker wages average from $20.02 to $20.60 weekly. The wage figures, however, are not an accurate dollar comparison with U. S. wages since the amounts go a lot farther because the lower cost of living essentials in Britain.

Neither the shipyard nor the industrial plant owners have so far made any counteroffer to the unions involved, after the unions agreed to discuss simultaneously the removal of some practices termed restrictive and the question of costly inter-union disputes in the industry.

trimmed interest rates a quarter of a percentage point; the U. S. Treasury sold its latest weekly issue of 91-day bills at an interest rate of 3.041 per cent, lowest in five months.

Wall Street, however, appeared unimpressed. William McCleskey Martin, chairman of the board of governors of the Federal Reserve System, said he sees no "conclusive trend" that the money pinch is lifting. And home builders complained that mortgage money is as hard to find as ever.

Prices, Costs Up
Business pricing policies returned to the spotlight this week. Cement manufacturers in the east raised their prices for the second time in six months; other businessmen continued to bemoan the constant rise in costs of material and labor. Walter S. Hallanan, president of Plymouth Oil Co., told a congressional committee that the recent increase (about 29 cents a barrel) in the price of U. S. crude oil was not enough to cover the higher cost of finding oil. And the United States Steel Corp. said in its annual report that the "cost-price inflation is in danger of becoming a permanent feature of American life."

Prices of new cars and some home appliances may go a little lower this spring. That's the prediction of Ewan Clague, head of the federal government's Bureau of Labor Statistics. The bureau's cost-of-living index, published at week's end, showed consumer prices in February at a record high. At 118.7 per cent of the 1947-49 average, the index was 4 per cent higher than in January and at a new peak for the sixth month in a row. The bureau said you paid more for everything last month except apparel. Costs of food and clothing made the biggest gains.

On-the-Cuff Buying
Briefly over the business scene: A government study shows that it's getting fashionable for upper income families to go into hock. More than 30 per cent of U. S. families with annual incomes of $10,000 and up indulge in on-the-cuff buying via the easy payment plan via the Dun & Bradstreet said 41 appliance-TV stores failed last month . . . fresh from a Miami conference with Louis Wolfson, his biggest stockholder, President George Romney of American Motors Corp. said the company will be out next year with a full line of Hudson, Nash and Rambler autos . . . record 1956 earnings were reported by Gulf Oil Corp., Standard Oil Co. of California, Shell Oil Co. and Sinclair Oil Corp.

PROVIDING A SUCCESSOR

The administration is reliably said to be considering a constitutional amendment which would authorize the vice president to take over the duties of chief executive in case of presidential disability. The amendment reportedly would transfer the authority, not the office. The change would be temporary, ending when the President was again able to discharge his duties. The President himself would make the decision as to his ability to carry on.

It is more than time that some such action be taken. The proposed amendment may not be the best one possible, but at least it would start the ball rolling. We cannot afford to continue much longer with the line of presidential succession so vaguely drawn.

One cannot but recall the speculation which resulted when Mr. Eisenhower was incapacitated by his heart attack. Fortunately he was able to resume some of his duties shortly after the seizure. It is difficult to guess what complications might have followed had he not been able to do so.

Congress has a great deal to do at this session. But the question of succession is of exceptional importance. Merely saying that the job of establishing a clear policy is going to be difficult does not excuse ignoring it. Congress should consider the matter, and then take action, as soon as possible.

A MERRY HEART

Thoughtful men and women often find themselves leaning toward a gloomy view of life. This is not hard to understand, the world being what it is. In adulthood, we all become aware of many terrible, sad and wretched things.

This has become even more true as means of communication have improved. The wide-ranging mind can find reasons for deep concern not only at home but in a thousand other places on the globe. Stories of pestilence and starvation, of war and of man's inhumanity to man, fall upon us like dismal rain, and it is hard not to go about with a long face.

Yet there is much to be said for a cheerful outlook despite our keen awareness of human troubles. Such an outlook need not be hollow or false. For despite all human adversity, there also is much good in the world. Being aware of it is largely a matter of attitude.

WELCOME CALLERS

The country has been observing the 60th anniversary of newspaper comic strips, and it naturally is a happy observance. These refreshing daily newspaper features have contributed much to the happiness of the nation.

Countless thousands of persons, young and old, have been benefited by having the various comic strip characters as visitors throughout the years. Other guests who call often may become bothersome but never Dagwood, Donald Duck, Henry, Li'l Abner, Bugs Bunny, Freckles and all others of their entertaining clan.

MORE FOR THE MONEY

Commenting on Britain's plans to reduce its military forces in Germany as part of an economy program, Prime Minister Macmillan declares his government "has no intentions of tiptoeing out of Europe." On the contrary, he asserts, the changes proposed "are designed to make our forces in Germany at once more effective and less costly in manpower and money."

If this seemingly illogical plan works, the prime minister might do the American taxpayers a favor by telling their Defense Department how it is done.

CAUSE OF REVOLUTION

'These Days'

By GEORGE SOKOLSKY
IT'S HARD TO FIGURE

At a winter resort, what is most visible, apart from the ocean and fantastic hotels, are women, of all ages, sizes and profiles, sufficiently undressed so that all defects and imperfections are obvious to the naked eye. These women are of one color, brown. It takes real effort and considerable suffering to be burned by the sun's rays to an even brown. No blotches of Nordic white are permitted.

Where are the husbands? That same question might also be asked at a summer resort. The wives are on pension. They are amply provided with room rent so that they can stay at the zaniest hotels; they are given sufficient clothes allowance to be able to compete with any degree of nakedness current at the moment; they have enough pocket money to play gin rummy or canasta or whatever is the rage. But the husbands are not on hand. They are busy doing great deeds.

The puzzling question is when does the wife see the husband and for what reason. If the winter is spent at Miami Beach or wherever and the summer is spent in the Catskills or White Mountains, when do the wife and husband join forces to run a family?

Perhaps such questions should not be asked lest they disturb the hotel business. If women covered themselves like an Arab, who would look at them? Under such circumstances a wife and a model might be equally unattractive. But who wants to dress like an Arab with a bed sheet covering the entire person?

Another thing that is queer about the Zoroastrians who inhabit the cabanas is that they insist that the browner one is the healthier one is. "Take the sun!" they say. So I see one of them basking in the sun until the back is red like a lobster. I am told that the red will turn to brown when it matures, like an apple is brown when it rots. It is all done for health.

It is like gals who fix their hair so it looks blonde, but the rest of them is olive-complexioned, now mixed with brown. Black hair would go well with such a complexion, but it is not this year's fashion. Altogether the lady looks like somebody you ought to know but cannot remember because she never looks the same twice. Even her grandchildren cannot recognize her on the rare occasions that she comes home from the cabanas.

Of course, there must be plenty of money in all these resorts but how anyone can save any money in these days of high taxes and brutal enforcement is beyond the wisdom even of a Univac. However, it must be available in one manner or another or it would not be spent so freely. Maybe there are savings because so many hereabouts are on diets. A diet is a device invented by beauticians supported by the medical profession and the vitamin industry to take the zest out of man's oldest occupation which has been to eat.

Consequently, a man make a meal of sauerkraut and coffee. Sauerkraut and beer are related racially and linguistically, but sauerkraut and coffee is something else again. However, the gentleman in question was such an advocate of his aberration that he held a long discussion on its virtues with the counterwoman of the coffee shop which was the only comfortable room in this particular architectural monstrosity because it looked like a coffee shop anywhere else in the United States. There was nothing exotic about it, like, for instance, a palm tree growing inside a building or a wall made of spun glass or a swimming pool so constructed that the feet but not the faces of the swimmers may be gazed upon through clear water. The coffee shop is a coffee shop where they sell lox on beignets as well as ham sandwiches to establish complete impartiality, toleration and love of mankind.

One thing is avoided and that is arguments. Who cares? So the world is going to hell. Did I make the world? It is the sun that makes everybody salubrious. If one is tempted to get interested in something, there is always gin rummy. Do you have to be an adviser to Eisenhower if Eisenhower positively don't want no advice from nobody at all? ## That Body of Yours

By JAMES W. BARTON, M.D.

DERMATITIS

Varieties of names have been given to eruptions on the skin, presumably associated with nervous symptoms for which the general name is neurodermatitis. Dermatitis means inflammation of the skin and neuro is a combining form denoting a nerve, nervous tissue, or the nervous system.

In this condition there is constant itching which precedes the appearance of changes in the skin. The eruption is dry and the skin becomes bumpy. It appears more often in people who have asthma and hay fever. Some families are more likely to have the condition than are others. Often the condition appears in a person who as a child suffered greatly with eczema. The frequency of the condition may be judged from the fact that it accounts for about one-third of the people discharged from the military services because of skin disease.

Among the substances that might initiate an attack are heat, cold, rapid changes of temperature, perspiration, such foods as fish, eggs, and acid foods, the wearing of certain articles of clothing made of silk, wool, or satin, the applications of various greases or greasy ointments, and finally, work, worry, strain and nervous upsets. The substances may not act themselves but they are the triggers that may set off an attack.

How are these conditions treated? Physicians control infections by giving antibiotic drugs to which the person is not sensitive, the tranquilizing drugs are used to lower the threshold of stimulation of the nervous system, the mucous-dissolving drugs such as trypsin are available for meeting conditions of excessive mucus in the lungs or bowel. ACTH and cortisone have a special effect in preventing allergic reactions, and the ointments developed from cortisone have brought about miracles in eczema.

The diet may be modified to get rid of such substances as milk, using a substitute such as soybean milk or meat formulas and substitutes for wheat or other common foods to which allergies may develop. Wool, silk, house dust and feathers are eliminated from the surroundings, and sometimes a person is simply moved to another climate or area when that is feasible. This has been found especially effective in cases of asthma.

Many types of drugs are available to control the symptoms affecting the skin. The itching is among the most difficult of the conditions to control but fortunately new remedies have been found helpful such as the ointment of hydrocortisone and Quotane and tronothane.

One authority, Dr. Marion Sulzberger, believes that emotional disturbances may not be the cause of these eruptions but the result. He thinks they follow years of maddening itching, sleeplessness, hopelessness and disfigurement and that once the skin is improved and itching relieved, they return quickly to mental and emotional normality.

Washington News

By PETER EDSON

Washington—(NEA)—There is some unrevealed Washington background on what has been happening in Indonesia in recent days.

When Indonesia's President Sukarno visited Washington last May, his No. 1 worry was western New Guinea. It had remained under control of the Netherlands when Indonesia was given its independence in 1949. The understanding was that—without prejudice one way or the other—the final status of primitive, sparsely settled New Guinea would be determined later.

When the young Indonesian Republic cast off its last ties with the Dutch shortly before Sukarno came to Washington, a great hue and cry was set up to have sovereignty over New Guinea.

Consequently, one subject which Sukarno kept stressing in his talks here was his desire to have American endorsement for his campaign to make the Dutch hand over New Guinea.

"I KNOW MY PEOPLE," Sukarno always began. As the leader of his people he had to know what they were thinking, he said. And the one thing they were looking for from the United States was a statement in support of Indonesia's demand to have New Guinea made a part of their republic—in clear and ringing tones that would not be misunderstood.

There had been full American support for Indonesia's independence at the end of the war, Sukarno went on. But now he heard no voice of America supporting Indonesia on New Guinea.

"I know my people," Sukarno kept repeating.

Americans listened politely to this harangue from the scrappy little Indonesian leader. But he got no endorsement for his crusade from official Washington.

He was told, in effect, that this was a question he would have to work out with the Dutch.

Then the other side of the coin was turned up.

Politely, President Sukarno was told that there were some things about Indonesia that were bothering the United States. There was some doubt in the United States as to just where President Sukarno's government stood on the question of support for Red China, Soviet Russia and international communism in general.

WOULD THE INDONESIAN president like to make a statement on that—in clear and ringing tones that could not be misunderstood?

No such statement was forth coming.

Instead, there was a lot of double talk from the president and his foreign minister, Ruslan Abdulgani. What it all boiled down to was that Indonesia wanted to be friends with everybody. Indonesia would not take sides in the cold war between the Communist and the Western countries.

To show his independence and his neutrality, President Sukarno made a grand tour of Soviet Russia last September.

He got the red carpet treatment and his speeches expressed friendship and mutual interests with the Russian people. The Soviet government had long before supported his claim to New Guinea.

But returning home, new troubles began for President Sukarno.

Dr. Mohammed Hatta, Indonesia's anti-Communist vice president, resigned in December.

The next month President Sukarno announced that democracy might not be the best form of government for his people. He announced that the fourth largest Communist party of Indonesia should be accepted on equal terms with the Nationalist and Moslem parties.

THEN CAME the Indonesian army revolt in South Sumatra. The Celebes, Moluccas, Sunda Islands and Borneo have now followed Sumatra's lead in revolt.

In most cases, Indonesian army officers seem to be leading the revolts and taking over the island governments. Protest against Sukarno's policy of giving Communist more voice in government is considered the principal cause.

The assumption in Washington is that the Indonesian president who had proclaimed so often here that "I know my people," may not have known them as well as he thought. And he may have underestimated the power of democracy.

Cables from Indonesia now indicate that Sukarno's best chance for survival may be to work out a reunion with the anti-Communist Dr. Hatta.

Questions -- Answers

Q—The stomach of what bird invariably contains a ball of its own feathers?
A—The grebe.

Q—Where were the three cradles of ancient civilization?
A—Egypt, the Fertile Crescent of Asia Minor and Crete.

Q—Who introduced sugar cane to the Western Hemisphere?
A—Sugar cane first grew in India and China and was taken into Europe by travelers after the Crusades. Colonizers brought sugar cane to America and the West Indies during the 1500's.

Women Win

East Lansing, Mich. (AP)—Research by a Michigan State University professor suggests that women generally do better than men in long, monotonous tasks. Dr. Paul Bakan, assistant professor of psychology at MSU, bases his preliminary findings on 1½-hour tests given to 20 subjects. He found that both sexes scored better in the first 15 minutes than in the remaining hour and 15 minutes, but that women did better in the long run. In the tests, 10 men and 10 women between the ages of 16 and 35 were asked to watch a light and note changes in its brightness.

Tranquillizer

York, Pa. (AP)—The York Dispatch suggested in an editorial that "if members of Congress were required to whittle for an hour after lunch every day . . . the goings-on in Washington would proceed more smoothly." "Whittling fosters peace and relaxation; it promotes clear thinking and a perspective on life's problems. If men, harassed and harried in our high-pressure society, would just take a period for whittling each day, they would discover that most problems would fade into proper perspective," the newspaper said.

Week's Business & Finance Reported by AP

Lowest Trading Average

New York, March 23 (AP)—The stock market had its lowest daily trading average this week of any week thus far in 1957.

Prices moved narrowly on average, putting the market barely ahead of where it was last week. The Associated Press average of 60 stocks was up a mere 20 cents to 173.90.

Wall Street observers agreed that the light trading represented a new high in caution, so far as investors are concerned, and they have been very cautious for more than a month.

The investing public was still awaiting a more clear-cut outcome of the Middle East problem, brokers said, and further clues as to the "leveling out" of business which economists have predicted for this year.

The big institutional investors such as pension funds were reported to be waiting-out this present period to see which way the cat is going to jump. The general sentiment in Wall Street appeared to be that business is undergoing a correction or an adjustment. Some experts believed that stocks are actually in a bear market—a prolonged period of declining prices; others felt that the market was on a "plateau," a trading range area, from which it would eventually emerge for a further sustained rise.

In any event, the daily average this week was only 1,612,291 shares. The previous low average was three weeks ago 1,651,767 shares.

The five most active issues this week on the American stock exchange were:

Canada Southern Petroleum, up ½ at 8½ on 69,600 shares; Panoastal Petroleum, up ¼ at 10½; Faraday Uranium, off 3/16 at 29 1/16; Barium Steel, unchanged at 10½; and Fargo Oils, up 3/16 at 4½.

The five most active issues this week on the New York stock exchange were:

American Motors, up ¼ at 8¼ on 174,900 shares; U. S. Hoffman Machinery, off ½ at 10½; Royal Dutch, up 1 at 45½; Shell Transport & Trading, off ½ at 23½; and Bethlehem Steel, off ½ at 42.

Bond Review

New York, March 23 (AP)—Corporate bonds milled ineffectually this week in some of the sparest trading of the year.

Industrials eased but utilities and foreign dollar liens gained slight fractions, while rails and investment quality issues were steady. The net result was a stand-off with the index unchanged for the week.

U. S. Government Bonds were mixed with strength mainly in intermediates and bills. Trading was light, however, and the market so thin a light supply of buy or sell orders moved it easily one way or the other.

For the week, over-the-counter dealers had the 2½s of 1963 up 10/32 at 95 10/32 bid. The victory 2½s of December, 1972-67, spurted 22/32 to 91 10/32. The 30-year 3½s and the 40-year 3s retreated 2/32 to 99 10/32 and 94 6/32, respectively. At these prices the 2½s of 1963, yield 3.30 per cent, the "vics" 3.19 per cent, the 3½s 3.27 per cent and the 3s return 3.25 per cent.

This week's sale of 91-day Treasury bills went at an average yield of 3.041 per cent. This was a marked drop from the 3.238 per cent yield of the previous week.

Another indication of slightly easier money market conditions was the ¼ percentage point cut in the rate on bankers' acceptances, first such reduction in yield of the trade bills in more than nine months.

Business borrowings to meet March 15 income tax deadlines were about 20 per cent less this year than last, according to statistics compiled by the Federal Reserve Bank of New York. Thus the "idea of March" passed without the money squeeze that had been anticipated earlier in the year.

The visibly supply of state and municipal offerings for the next 30 days amounts to $412,624,575 compared with $406,795,213 a week ago. New issues on tap for public sale this coming week total $102,424,350 bonds and $6,400,000 short-term notes, compared with revised totals of $141,107,946 bonds and $77,324,000 notes for the past week, according to the Daily Bond Buyer. The weekly average of long-term offerings now is $137,343,730.

Biggest municipal issue next week is 32 million of Ohio major thoroughfare construction bonds, set for auction on Wednesday. On Tuesday Puerto Rico is to open bids on 10 million of general obligations.

With the exception of the AT&T debentures, the corporate calendar will be very light. New Orleans Public Service, Inc., will open bids Thursday on six million dollars of first mortgage bonds.

Livestock Report

Chicago, March 23 (AP)—Slaughter lambs advanced this week for the fourth consecutive week and reached a top of $25.25, the highest since last July 10. The top price on choice wooled ewes at $12.00 was the highest since June 1952.

The salable sheep supply was extremely light. Dressed lamb prices continued to advance, with carcasses at Chicago selling $4.50 to $5.00 higher.

Barrows and gilts were 25 to 50 cents higher for the week, with smaller receipts of hogs and moderate price upturn in wholesale pork items responsible for the advance. A top of $18.25 paid at the close was the highest since Feb. 8. Sows sold well through Thursday but declined on increased receipts.

Fed steers closed the week steady to 50 cents higher, topping at $27.00. Heifers and cows were strong to 50 cents higher, with cow prices hitting a two-year high. Bulls were strong to 25 cents up. Vealers were steady to $1.00 higher. Dressed beef prices in Chicago and in the east mostly were steady to $1.00 higher.

Grain Survey

Chicago, March 23 (AP)—Liquidation by longs remained a depressing influence in the wheat futures market on the Board of Trade this week.

There were some indications that the heavy selling may let up, however. Losses were only minor Friday. In one session—Wednesday—prices even moved upward.

Corn also was under hedging pressure most of the week. Rye and soybeans dipped under liquidation. Oats held fairly steady. Wheat ended the week 2½ to 6½ cents lower than a week ago Friday. Corn was ½ to 1¼ lower, oats ¾ higher to 1¼ lower, rye 2 to 5¼ lower, soybeans 1½ to 3½ lower, and lard 37 to 50 cents a hundred pounds down.

During the last two weeks, wheat futures have dipped around 7 to 10 cents a bushel under liquidation which at times has been fairly heavy.

Disappointment over exports, and indications of improvement in the southwestern winter wheat crop, have been main bearish influences in the wheat pit.

Much of the southwest received good, soaking rains this week. More moisture was forecast.

The Uhlmann Grain Co. said a survey showed prospects in the southwest might be improved by 25 to 30 million bushels since last December's report. Harris, Upham & Co. declared that "it is now generally thought that much of this territory in Texas, Oklahoma, and Kansas has enough moisture to get wheat off to a good start."

Indications that Argentina is exporting huge amounts of wheat to Europe at prices lower than U. S. price levels is giving some traders some uneasiness, however. Broomhall, British grain authority, said Argentina probably has contracted for around a million tons for export to Europe, and has a total of two million tons available for the purpose.

Canada announced spring wheat planting intentions this week, indicating the smallest acreage in 14 years and the second smallest since 1920.

Finish on Upside

New York, March 23 (AP)—Cotton futures prices developed erratic trends this week but finished with all deliveries on the upside.

Net gains were moderate. Best showing was made by the nearer months.

Active futures contracts on the New York cotton exchange finished at prices which ranged from 15 cents to $1.35 a bale higher than at the close of the week before.

Among the chief bullish factors were mill price fixing and short covering in the nearer months. Some buying was stimulated by the belief that the annual rate on 1957 cotton would be higher than the previously guaranteed minimum and might even approximate the present price level.

The distant months backed and filled for a good part of the week. Some buying was attracted by their discounts below the nearer positions.

Influences which tended to pull the market lower included new reports of beneficial rains in Texas, and a net decline in the 1956 loan stock during the week ended March 15.

An encouraging report on the latest sales of government-held cotton under the surplus export program was awaited by many traders.

Arrest of Star Witness Asked in Montesi Trial

Venice, Italy, March 23 (AP)—Defense lawyers in the Wilma Montesi trial clamored for the arrest of star witness Anna Maria Caglio today as she was brought back to the stand for the third time.

"Throw that liar in jail," shouted one of about 30 defense attorneys in the packed courtroom on Venice's Grand canal. Four or five others jumped up and joined in the demand.

"The proof of her lies has finally been seen," screamed Giacomo Delitala, attorney for chief defendant Gianpiero Piccioni, son of former Foreign Minister Attilio Piccioni. Piccioni is charged with manslaughter for allegedly abandoning a 20-year-old Wilma on a beach near Rome in 1953 in the belief she already was dead.

Presiding Judge Mario Tiberi ignored the demands to jail Miss Caglio but suspended the session in the resultant uproar for the second consecutive day. Yesterday he called a halt to the trial now in its ninth week, when a defense lawyer branded it a "mockery of justice."

That suspension lasted 40 minutes.

DO YOU REMEMBER

By SOPHIE MILLER

I wonder how many folks remember the "Queens of the VFW Dance Fiesta" held Oct. 26, 1945 at our Municipal Auditorium.

Many folks took part in the project bringing some 20 queens in the spotlight from the various factories and industries. Each plant chose their own queen and the pictures of each was published in the paper at one time and this page was sent to the patients at Castle Point Veteran Hospital, where some 500 votes were cast for Queen of Castle Point.

The plants provided the girls with beautiful evening gowns and corsages. A group picture was later taken of all the queens together as they were ready to make the trip to Castle Point. This photo by Ken Roosa of the Freeman at the time was reprinted by Foreign Service magazine, which went all over the world wherever American soldiers were stationed. One Roundout GI saw it while stationed on Guam and told me about it on his return to the states.

Mrs. TenBroeck who worked with me on the project was in the background with me and he recognized me. I was not one of the contestants.

At this moment I do not have the list of girls, but do have copies of the photos. The following is in part the write-up on the picture as printed in the Foreign Service magazine: "A beauty contest and ball, sponsored by Post No. 1386, Kingston, recently provided fun and entertainment for servicemen and disabled veterans from the AAF Pawling Convalescent Home, Pawling, N. Y., also from the Castle Point Hospital and for the residents of Kingston."

The item further explained: "Contestants for the title of beauty queen were employees representing various business houses in Kingston. The girls aided at the ball in selling flowers and otherwise were an added glamour to some 3,000 attending the magnificent affair. The ball coinciding with Navy Day, was given added color by the attendance of 40 blue clad Navy men as guests of the VFW. The sailors were crew members of a sub-chaser docked in the Rondout Creek nearby."

The ball was a great social and financial success and a tribute to the efforts of Chairman William Jordan, Post Commander Chris Perry and his entire committee. Post No. 1386 netted over $4,000 from the event. A short time after the ball, arrangements were made by the VFW to have a bus take all the girls in their formal attire to Castle Point Hospital where over 500 ballots were cast and the winner, Miss Margaret De Cicco, chosen Miss Castle Point. The contestants brought hundreds of individually wrapped gifts from Kingston and Ulster county residents so that there were enough gifts for each patient.

I remember, it took weeks of hard work by the entire committee to arrange all this and Chairman Jordan and his wife, Commander Chris Perry, John Greene and his sister Hazel and all the other members and their wives gave their entire time to this mammoth undertaking at a very difficult time to fill the auditorium with glamour and excitement and to make it a financial success as well. I wonder how many of the queens remember walking in the center of the large Municipal Auditorium floor following that white line while being judged by disabled vets of AAF Pawling Convalescent Home. Those eight men went into one huddle after another to try and be fair, as all the girls were very glamorous.

Big Hailstones

Fall in Florida

Miami, Fla., March 23 (AP)—Hail, some of it reported as big as a man's fist, fell in central and south Florida yesterday.

The only major damage was reported in a three square mile section of orange groves at Lake Wales.

Lynn Sheldon reported from Lake Pierce that he saw hailstones as big as his fist. Other reports ranged between the size of marbles and golf balls.

'Bomber' Called Unfit for Trial

New York, March 23 (AP)—A Bellevue Hospital psychiatrist says he and four colleagues agree unanimously that New York's "Mad Bomber" is psychotic and therefore unable to stand trial.

Dr. John H. Cassidy testified yesterday at a general sessions court hearing into the Bellevue findings. The hearing will resume Friday.

Cassidy described the bomber as a schizophrenic of the paranoid type—a man "living in another world" with delusions of persecution.

George Metesky, 54-year-old bachelor of Waterbury, Conn., is charged with attempted murder and other crimes in connection with the alleged planting of homemade bombs in New York city over a period of 16 years.

Counsel, Judge Clash
At yesterday's hearing defense Counsel James D. C. Murray clashed verbally with Judge John A. Mullen over the Feb. 28 proceedings. At that time Mullen entered a plea of innocent by reason of insanity for Metesky.

Murray claimed the judge had "bypassed" the law in entering a plea before psychiatrists submitted a formal report. The lawyer asked the judge to withdraw the plea and withdraw himself from the case on grounds he had "expressed an opinion."

The judge agreed to withdraw the plea, but he refused to remove the case from the court calendar. That would have meant his own withdrawal from the case.

Savings Bank Deposits

New York, March 22 — Deposits in the nation's 527 mutual savings banks increased $112,000,000 during February 1957, to reach a new all-time high of $30,223,000,000 according to Crawford H. Stocker, Jr., president of the National Association of Mutual Savings Banks and president, Lynn Five Cents Savings Bank, Lynn, Mass. The increase included gains of $91,000,000 in regular and $21,000,000 in club and other special purpose accounts. During the month the banks gained 43,000 accounts, bringing the total to 21,620,000.

The "Acme" . . . Split Level House Of Smooth Design

Rooms . . . Six
Bedrooms . . . Three
Closets . . . Seven
Cubage: House . . . 27,500 Ft.
Garage . . . 6,300 Ft.
Dimensions . . . 63' x 27'

The Home of the Week featured today is the "Acme," a six-room split level house of long, pleasing lines well-suited to a large family.

The house is 63 feet across the front, while the depth is 27 feet. Cubage of the house is 27,500 feet with a cubage of 6,300 feet in the garage.

The design is most appropriate for a sloping or judiciously-graded lot, as the recreation room is planned for a grade level entrance.

The 14½ by 15-foot recreation room is just opposite the laundry. Its location therefore makes it an ideal children's playroom, as the youngsters will not be tracking through the house to gain washing facilities. The recreation room's above-ground location will also provide it with a normal amount of daylighting.

Laundry Room Provided
As there is an abundance of space on this lower level, provision also has been made for a laundry room next to the laundry.

Located on the main level of the house are the living room, dining room and kitchen. The top most level contains the "Acme's" three bedrooms, the bathroom and a laundry.

The center entrance provided in the "Acme" will allow a smooth flow of traffic through the house from the front door. The guest closet is conveniently placed to one side of the entrance to the living room. The closet, however, is far enough away from the front door to eliminate congestion in the vicinity of the front door when guests for a Saturday night party all arrive at the same time.

Storage Space Is Important

Storage space is one of the most important features for any house, whether you are judging a new plan or remodeling an old house.

An indication of what is considered a minimum storage allowance for an average family is contained in Federal Housing Administration regulations for houses built without basements. In addition to all coat closets and bedroom closets required in a house, there must be 150 cubic feet of extra storage space, plus 50 cubic feet more for each bedroom.

This places the minimum for a three-bedroom house, without basement, at 300 cubic feet of storage space in excess of regular closets.

Paint the Window Boxes In Eye-Catching Colors

Window boxes should be painted attractively so they will be bright and eye-pleasing whether the flowers they contain are blooming or not. The color chosen should be one that goes well with the exterior color scheme of the house. Soft yellow, hydrangea blue, and a grayed vermilion are effective colors for window boxes.

Nursery Fruit Plants

When fruit plants arrive from the nursery they are wrapped tightly with a moist material around the roots. If they are in transit for a week or so they begin to dry out. Open the bundles immediately on arrival and if the roots are drying place them in a bucket of water for a half hour or so and then plan them or heel them in until they can be planted. Many fruit plants fail to grow well or die because they do not receive proper care previous to planting.

Storing Shellac

Don't store shellac in bottles where it will get a lot of sunlight and be sure that the container has a top that can be closed tight. Also don't store shellac, even overnight in a metal container.

Fireplace Featured

The 14½ by 18½-foot living room in the "Acme" is well-proportioned with not too much length in relation to its width. The room features a fireplace at the end of the room opposite the entrance from the center hall, a location that provides visitors with a quick and pleasant view of the room's center of interest. The kitchen and dining area are located at the rear of the house and the two combined measure 11 feet by 21½ feet. The U-shaped work area of the kitchen occupies about one-half of the largest dimension.

The two are separated, however, by base cabinet and counter construction which serves to provide a dividing line between the two, but at the same time does not waste space.

Convenient Counter

The layout of the dinette-kitchen area also permits the installation of a counter next to the refrigerator — always a convenient item when meals are being prepared. The same counter will double as buffet space when the table in the dining area is being set.

The master bedroom, measuring 11 feet by 14 feet, eight inches, has a large closet well-suited to sliding doors. The next largest bedroom is 13½ by 11 feet, four inches.

Special Nails For Wallboard

New nails with barbed rings have been developed for installing gypsum wallboard panels. These nails have much greater holding power and will not have a tendency to pop out when you hammer on the other side of a wall. They drive readily and their heads can be concealed as completely with tape and wallboard cement as any other nail. Their value is an insurance of decoration, whether paint or wallpaper.

Need Servicing

Most types of home fire extinguishers need to be refilled from time to time if they are going to work properly in a pinch. Read the instructions on your fire extinguishers and see if they are ready for a little servicing.

Chalk-Resistant Paint

If you plan to paint exterior siding above masonry, such as a wood sided gable over brick veneer, ask your paint dealer for a chalk-resistant paint which will not wash down on the masonry.

Furniture Finishing

Any fine furniture that needs refinishing should be lacquered, enameled or varnished indoors so that dust will not settle on it before the finish has begun to dry.

Watch That Leaky Faucet

How much water does a leaky faucet leak, and how much does it cost? Here's the answer, according to the Coleman Heating Institute, Wichita, Kan.:

A 60-drop-a-minute leak wastes 192 gallons a month. If it's hot water that's dripping away, 480 cubic feet of gas will have been consumed in heating the wasted water. Figure this against your local gas rate, to find out how much it costs.

Ninety drops a minute waste 310 gallons a month and consume 775 cubic feet of gas. One hundred and twenty drops a minute waste 429 gallons, with extra gas consumption of 1,073 cubic feet.

Plexiglas Shower Panel Completely Waterproof

A new, easy-to-install and completely waterproof shower panel made of plexiglas was introduced to the public at the National Plumbing and Heating Exposition in Chicago recently. Two plexiglas panels slide on runners which are cemented on the rim of the bathtub. The panels are available in three colors—gold, pink, and clear.

How to Figure Amount Of Coating for Ceiling

When figuring the amount of material you'll need for recoating a ceiling—or a floor—multiply the length of the room by its width. This will give you the number of square feet to be refinished. To determine the quantity of material which will be needed, you divide the total number of square feet in the area by the coverage the desired type of coating provides. Your dealer can give you this information.

Cut Rug Strips While Damp

If you like hooking rugs, but don't like the lint that results when you tear or cut materials into strips for hooking, here's how to eliminate the lint: Wash the materials you plan to use in warm water, rinse, and while wet, cut or tear the strips in desired widths.

Fabrics usually tear easily when wet and this saves cutting time and wear and tear on your hands from scissors. Hang the strips to dry before hooking them into your rug pattern. Not only is this method quicker and easier, but you'll have a fresh, clean rug when you're finished.

Saves Miles of Steps

In one year the family laundry requires the lady of the house to walk three miles carrying a load of 3,000 pounds of wet wash, tests made by the Gas Appliance Manufacturers Association disclose. Much of this labor can be eliminated by installation of a modern laundry, including a clothes dryer, in unused space in the basement or on the back porch.

Painting Cupboards

When you're refinishing a cupboard, enamel the inside first. Start with the back, next do the shelves and then the insides of the doors. In some cases it's easier if you remove the doors. If this is not feasible, delay the painting of the outside surface of the doors until after the inside surfaces are dry.

U.S. AND BRITAIN HAIL A BIRTHDAY—The bird's-eye-view sketch above depicts the Jamestown Festival Park, where the Jamestown Festival opens April 1 to celebrate the 350th anniversary of the founding of Jamestown, Va., first permanent English settlement in the New World. The governments of the United States, Great Britain and Virginia have joined with scores of collaborating organizations to prepare the eight-month celebration, which ends Nov. 30. Britain's Queen Elizabeth and Prince Philip will participate, being expected to arrive there direct from England in the royal yacht Britannia on Sept. 9. During the celebration, some 2,500,000 visitors are expected to throng the $1,500,000 Festival Park. The "Three Ships" (16 on sketch) are full-sized replicas of the Susan Constant, the Godspeed and the Discovery, the vessels that landed the first Jamestown settlers on May 13, 1607. Jamestown Island (10 on sketch), a peninsula in 1607, was the site the colonists selected as the place for settlement.

Hi-Fi Addicts Room Need Not Be a Laboratory

For two million sound-addicts, who take it in the ear, high fidelity is a way of life.

Hi-fi clubs in every major city gather for evening meetings and listen to the near-perfect reproduction of sound.

But audiophiles do not practice their ways in catacombs, the attic or a bedroom. They demand a room consecrated to sound.

Often, their wire, speakers, amplifiers and pre-amplifiers will turn a living room into a laboratory. One does not merely listen to high-fidelity sound. One has to live with it.

The basic equipment—speaker, amplifier, record player—can be camouflaged in many ways.

The most practical way of hiding a hi-fi set is to stow it in a nearby closet. The speaker may then be mounted on the closet door. Another popular hideaway is the living room bookshelf.

Many companies manufacture hi-fi cabinets that can be blended easily into any decoration scheme. Do-it-yourselfers will discover all major plywood concerns distributing plans for hi-fi cabinets.

The speaker is usually placed in a corner of the room. Furniture should be arranged so that sound waves do not immediately bounce off flat surfaces. Heavily-upholstered furniture will absorb sound waves and these pieces are generally located far from the mouth of the speaker.

Walls, drapery and carpetsings must all be considered when installing a hi-fi set.

The minimum cost for such a set is about $150. The phonograph should run about $50, the amplifier $50, and the speaker $50. There is no maximum cost. Some sets run into thousands of dollars.

The beginner should plan on using at least two speakers. A 12-inch "woofer" reproduces low notes while a smaller "tweeter" is effective on higher ranges.

The result: Freedom from extraneous noises and distortion, full frequency of the human ear and the complete range of a symphony orchestra.

Paint Does Wonders

The right colored paint in the right place will do wonders for a room. If a room seems too long in proportion to its width, you can make the end walls come closer by painting them in a color that's darker than the side walls. On the other hand, if a room is too nearly square to be visually interesting, you can apparently lengthen it by painting the end walls in a lighter color than the other two.

Veterans' Rights, Benefits Listed

Howard C. Shurtner, county director Veterans' Service Agency, and William Hartman, state veteran counselor NYS Division of Veterans Affairs, submit another in a series of articles on rights and benefits of veterans, servicemen and their dependents:

Medical—The Armed Forces Dependents Medical Care Act of 1946 provides for complete obstetrical service at the expense of the government for the wives of servicemen on active duty. This obstetrical care includes the cost of drugs and laboratory fees which are necessary in the pre-hospital period. These drugs may be paid for whether they are furnished directly by the doctor or indirectly by a drug store. If the drugs are furnished by a drug store, the drug store bills the doctor, and the doctor in turn bills the government.

Bonus—North Dakota voters approved a nine million dollar bond issue to cover the cost of a state bonus for Korean veterans. The necessary legislation to pay the bonus has been introduced in the state Legislature. The bill to pay the bonus has won unanimous approval from the House and it is expected to receive Senate approval also. Service of more than 60 days between June 25, 1950 and July 27, 1953, is required. The bonus will be paid at the rate of $12.50 for each month of stateside duty and $17.50 for overseas duty. Survivors of servicemen who died on active duty during the same period will receive $600.

Armed Forces—The indemnity compensation authorized by the Servicemen's and Veterans' Survivors Benefits Act covers members of reserve components during their travel to and from active and inactive duty. Reservists have to be authorized to perform active duty for training or inactive duty for training. Under such authority, reservists who die from an injury incurred on or after January 1, 1957, while going directly to or returning directly from such types of training, are considered to have been on active duty for training or inactive duty training and their survivors would be eligible to claim VA indemnity compensation benefits.

Education—Compensation or pension may not be paid to or for a child because of school attendance after age 18 concurrently with benefits under the War Orphans Educational Assistance Act of 1956 based on the service of the same or any other veteran. Compensation or pension may be paid, however, to a child under 18 or to a help-less child concurrently with benefits under that Act.

Discharges—The U. S. Court of Appeals has ruled that veterans cannot appeal to federal courts for alterations of discharges less than honorable. This decision was based on the opinion that the federal court system lacks authority to "review, control or compel the granting of particular types of certificates" to individuals discharged from military service.

Questions about the rights and benefits of veterans, servicemen or their dependents may be submitted for individual attention to the Ulster County Veterans Service Agency at 32 Main street, Kingston.

Shokan

Shokan, March 23—Edward Hoyt of Hackensack, N. J., was a local caller Tuesday while en route home from a visit to his home town, Prattsville.

Mrs. Morris Sheinberg of New York was here Sunday in the course of a weekend stay at her summer home in Chichester. Mrs. Sheinberg, who with her husband recently returned from a six weeks motor trip to Mexico, reports that her neighbor in the Shandaken summer colony, Joseph Wolfgang, died in New York city.

John Adels of Ashokan has been at Benedictine Hospital where he underwent surgery. Miss Ollie Faulkner, the former Ruth Longyear of Shokan celebrated her birthday, March 28. The Faulkners have resided in Rockford, Ill., since late waterworks days.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wilkins have returned from a three weeks visit with Mr. Wilkin's relatives in Vallejo, Calif.

Mrs. Patrick Kelly and Mrs. William J. Loos, summer residents of Shokan recently motored from Inwood, L. I., and spent a day here.

Less Water Needed

Plants with thick leaves like sansevieria and rubber plants don't need watering as often as the thin-leaved plants.

Vanity Lavatories

Vanity lavatories come in the same attractive colors as conventional free-standing, wall-hung or pedestal-mounted lavatories—pink, blue, green, yellow, tan, ivory and gray—as well as white.

Movable Tile

There are special types of floor tile on the market these days that don't require any adhesive. They are just set over a smooth clean floor and pressed down.

I AM THE WANT AD

By Harry Gwaltney

My MISSION is to serve humanity without regard to creed or position or time or place • I herald the arrival of the new born, I serve them through life and announce their demise • I am the servant of the poor, the commissioner of the rich • With each sunrise and each sunset I go forth with new missions to perform • Each new day new thousands rely upon me to fill their needs and satisfy their wants • I search out all manner of things for all manner of persons • I find the castle for the newlyweds, a home for those grown weary and aged • I find a business for a future giant of industry and a little shop for a widow's livelihood • I alter the course of millions, and many times the future of maid and man is of my determination • I recover the lost pets of weeping children, and restore lost persons to anxious friends • I sing the praise of artisans, proclaim the skill of craftsmen • I find labor for the man of brawn as well as opportunity for trained and active minds • I am the Fabled Dwarfs, Aladdin's Lamp and the Magic Wand of modern times • Millions in trade are consummated through me, yet the value of my service is not to be measured in silver or gold • Even rouges avail themselves of my power and filch from those who trust me • I am an index of trends, a barometer of commerce, a harbinger of coming events • I am a by-word in countless thousands of homes, the first thought in many times of need • My speed of action, the sureness of my success, matches the completeness of my public acceptance • Within my lines are the sad stories and the glad stories of everyday living that goes to make up life • I perform in my own individual way and for me there is no substitute • No other medium, no other method, plan, or scheme can duplicate my service • In multiple, I become the world's greatest market of services and things • I am born of the people and have lived and grown by their insistence and over the protests of those who held my destiny • I have become an institution of service big enough and broad enough to do anything for anybody at anytime—I AM THE WANT AD!

Each of the five finalists will also receive mementos of their participation in the annual Page One Queen competition.

Coddington-Rider Wedding Announced

Miss Betty Lou Coddington, daughter of Mrs. R. E. Murphy of St. Petersburg, Fla., and Oscar H. Coddington of 288 Main street, became the bride of Robinson Lucian Rider, son of Mr. and Mrs. Worthington Rider, Thursday, March 7, at 7:30 p. m. in the Clearwater Methodist Church, St. Petersburg, Fla.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Alva Brock, pastor of the church.

Baskets of white gladioli decorated the church for the occasion.

The bride was given in marriage by her stepfather. She wore a gown of white nylon net and satin. The bouffant skirt was of small tiered ruffles and the long torso fitted bodice was satin. Accenting the skirt was a double ruffle ending in a bow in the back. A fingertip veil fell from a pearl and sequin headpiece. The bride carried an arm bouquet of white gladioli.

Mrs. James Meaney of St. Petersburg was the matron of honor. She wore an ankle length gown of yellow net over taffeta with short sleeves and a full skirt. Mrs. Meaney carried a bouquet of gladioli and matching headpiece.

Bridesmaids included Miss Linda Rider, sister of the bridegroom and Miss Alisan Quackenbush of St. Petersburg. They wore pink and blue chiffon gowns and carried bouquets of pink gladioli.

Sister of the bride, Mary Ann Murphy, was the flower girl. She wore an orchid net yellow dress and carried gladioli.

Richard Reina of Miami, Fla., was the best man. Serving as ushers were Henry Frazee and Robert D. Parker, both of St. Petersburg.

A reception was held in the church hall following the ceremony.

The bride is a graduate of Northeast High School, St. Petersburg and attended New York State Teachers College in New Paltz.

Her husband, who graduated from Kingston High School, served with the navy, is employed by Kingston Oil Supply.

For her wedding trip, the bride wore a dark blue linen dress with blue and white jacket, dark blue accessories and a corsage of white orchids.

The couple plan to make their future home in Kingston.

Union Lenten Service Slates Noted Speaker

REV. DEAN G. MCKEE

The third Sunday night Union Lenten service will be held Sunday at 7:30 p. m. in St. John's Protestant Episcopal Church, Albany at Smith avenue.

Protestant Episcopal congregations unite in prayers and hymns under the leadership of local pastors, and hear a guest preacher.

Guest Speaker

The guest speaker is the Rev. Dean Greer McKee, Th.D., DD, president of "Biblical Seminary in New York City."

He was elected to that office in 1946 following five years during which time he was the Dean of the Seminary.

Dr. McKee is a minister of the Presbyterian Church, and holds the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity from Parsons College, Fairfield, Iowa, his Alma Mater.

Formerly an instructor in New Testament Greek and Church History, he was secretary of the faculty at Biblical Seminary for 10 years.

Heads Committees

A member of the New York Presbyterian Committee on examination of candidates to the ministry, he is also chairman of the committee on bills and overtures. He holds memberships in a number of professional societies, and has contributed articles to various theological quarters and other religious publications.

As president of Biblical Seminary he has a major responsibility in directing the interdenominational graduate school with a student body in excess of 160 men and women.

Established 56 Years

In the 56 years of the school's existence, the Seminary has sent to all parts of the world more than 8,000 ministers, missionaries, and educators especially known for their skill in teaching the Bible.

Dr. McKee has made extensive trips to Europe and the Near-East and is an authority on religious movements in these areas.

Also participating in the service are the host-pastor, the Rev. Robert T. Shellenberger, and the Rev. Dr. Kenneth Neal Alexander, pastor of St. James Church.

Tickets are available from the following committee members: Lawrence Guess, Raymond Schatzel, John Heitzman, James Loughran, Frank Leirey, Leo Murray, Richard Hinkley, Kenneth Steltz and Bernard O'Neil.

Speaker Slated For Presbyterian Church Services

The guest preacher for the first of three Lenten services starting Thursday at 8 p. m., in First Presbyterian Church, Elmendorf street and Tremper avenue, will be the Rev. Robert B. Shane, pastor of the Eliot Presbyterian Church, Lowell, Mass.

The Rev. Mr. Shane, born in Pittsburgh, Pa., is a graduate of Allegheny College with postgraduate work at Pittsburgh University. Graduating from Western Theological Seminary, he was ordained by the Presbytery of Washington, Pa., and became pastor of the Presbyterian Church of Cross Creek, Pa., serving there from 1945 to 1948. The following three years were spent as associate pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, Washington, Pa., and in 1951 he became pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Lowell, Mass.

Two years ago, when his congregation united with the Eliot Congregational Church in Lowell, to become the Eliot Presbyterian Church, the Rev. Mr. Shane was called and installed as the pastor of the merged congregations.

During his ministry he has served as director of several junior high and senior high conferences in the Synods of Pennsylvania and New England. He is considered an able and realistic preacher of the Gospel of Christ, according to the Rev. William J. McVey, local pastor.

Featured as guest preachers for the two succeeding services of this year's Lenten series sponsored by the church session, will be: the Rev. Seth C. Morrow, pastor of the Old First (Presbyterian) Church of Orange, N. J., on April 4; and the Rev. Robert Wells Youngs, pastor of Hitchcock Memorial Presbyterian Church of Scarsdale, on April 11.

At each service the senior choir, under the direction of Miss Edna Merrihew, organist and choir director, will sing an anthem, and a solo will be offered. The Rev. William J. McVey, pastor, is to conduct the services. A cordial invitation is extended to the public.

Holy Name Will Take Communion At St. Peter's

St. Peter's Holy Name Society will hold its annual corporate communion and breakfast Sunday, March 31, and the committee announced today that tickets are available and may be purchased at Masses this Sunday.

The society will receive communion at the 8 a. m. Mass on the occasion of Laetare Sunday, the announcement said, then breakfast at the parish school hall, where the speaker will be Dr. Gerald Gorman of this city.

The meal will be served by the Christian Mothers Society.

It was stressed that all men of the parish and their friends are invited to receive communion and attend the breakfast.

Tickets are available from the following committee members: Lawrence Guess, Raymond Schatzel, John Heitzman, James Loughran, Frank Leirey, Leo Murray, Richard Hinkley, Kenneth Steltz and Bernard O'Neil.

New Era Seen Communion Fast Rules Relaxed By Pope's Order

Washington, March 23 (AP)—Pope Pius XII's relaxation of regulations concerning communion fast and evening Mass should result in "a new era of spirituality among Catholics of the world," American church sources say.

The papal decree, announced yesterday, empowers Roman Catholic priests to celebrate evening Masses daily "so long as it is requested for the spiritual welfare of a considerable number of people."

The new rules also require abstinence from solid food and alcoholic drinks for only three hours before attending Mass and receiving Holy Communion. In the past, the pre-communion fast ordinarily was observed from midnight of the day on which communion was to be received.

Nonalcoholic drinks now may be taken up to one hour before receiving communion, and water at any time.

The National Catholic Welfare Conference said yesterday "there is every indication" many U. S. dioceses will quickly put the new relaxation into effect.

The conference issued a statement by Archbishop Richard J. Cushing of Boston which said the change should bring "a tremendous increase in daily communions."

Bishop Joseph A. Burke of Buffalo, N. Y., ordered the new instructions distributed to the 261 churches in his diocese and urged Catholics to take advantage of the privileges, which become effective Monday.

Catholic Charities Leisure Time Program

Leisure time programs for the physical, cultural and spiritual development of youth and for the prevention of delinquency, directed by the Youth Activities Department of New York Catholic Charities, reach 204,969 children, teenagers and young adults last year, according to the annual report of the department released Friday by Msgr. Harold S. Engel, director.

Progress is noted in the Catholic Youth Organization's recently developed Parish Organization Plan (POP) which helps the individual parish set up a local center on the professional level to recruit new CYO members, expand activities and train adult lay volunteers. A special training team from CYO headquarters maps out the program and conducts courses for volunteers.

To date 40 parishes have been organized and 15 more are on the waiting list.

Religious Radio Programs

Presented as a public service over Station WKNY and sponsored by the Kingston Area Ministerial Association, the following programs of Christian faith and life will be broadcast during the coming week: Sunday, 10:45 a. m., "Let There Be Light," a transcribed production of the Broadcasting and Film Commission of the National Council of the Churches of Christ in the U. S. A.; 11 a. m. Morning service of worship from Clinton Avenue Methodist Church, with sermon by the minister, the Rev. Clyde Herbert Snell; 9:15 p. m., Church World News, a weekly summary of happenings in the world of religion. Each day, except Sunday, 8:55 a. m. Morning Chapel, a brief devotional service, to be conducted by the following ministers as indicated: Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, the Rev. David C. Gaise, pastor of Evangelical Lutheran Church of the Redeemer; Thursday, Friday and Saturday, the Rev. James Blane, pastor of the Flatbush Reformed Church.

Pastors' Group Announce Easter Dawn Services

At a recent meeting of some of the area evangelical pastors, plans were formulated for an Outdoor Easter Dawn Service to be held on top of Hasbrouck Park overlooking the Hudson river.

This service will be held at 6:30 a. m. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Dr. Julian Dandy, vice president of Toccoa Falls Bible College will be the special speaker for this service. A volunteer choir will be present and special music assisted by the Salvation Army Band.

More details concerning this service will be made available at a later date.

This same group of pastors is making plans to charter several busses to attend and support the Billy Graham Crusade at Madison Square Garden in New York city.

Your Life And Mine

By CLYDE HERBERT SNELL
LEAVING HAPPINESS BEHIND

It's a strange world, this world we live in, where much of what we call progress seems to remove us farther from that coveted state of the heart which we call happiness. The more scientific know-how we acquire the less satisfaction and contentment we seem to get out of life. The more gadgets we invent to lighten the burden of toil, the heavier becomes the unbearable burden of the meaningless of our existence. With ever increasing amounts of leisure-time on our hands we seem to have lost the knowledge of how truly to enjoy ourselves. G. K. Chesterton put his finger on one of the most serious problems confronting our modern civilization when he said: "Humanity has not got the good out of its inventions; and by making more and more inventions, it is only leaving its own power of happiness further and further behind."

There is encouragement in travel, even though we may be many long miles from our destination, provided we are journeying in the right direction. But travel is discouraging when we realize that every mile covered takes us farther away from the place where we desire to be. If we were unhappy and could feel that we were travelling toward happiness—there would be encouragement in that. But to be unhappy, and to be travelling away from happiness—that is a spiritual catastrophe!

John Ruskin once lashed out at what the London Times called "Railroad Enterprise." "There was," he said "a rocky valley between Buxton and Bakewell, once upon a time, divine as the Vale of Tempe; you might have seen the Gods there morning and evening—Apollo and all the sweet Muses of the light—walking in fair procession on the lawns of it, and to and fro among the pinnacles of its crags. You cared neither for Gods nor grass, but for cash (which you did not know the way to get); you thought you could get it by what the Times calls 'Railroad Enterprise.' You enterprised a railroad through the valley—you blasted its rocks away, heaped thousands of tons of shale into its lovely stream. The valley is gone, and the Gods with it; and now, every fool in Buxton and Bakewell in half an hour, and every fool in Bakewell at Buxton; which you think a lucrative process of exchange—you Fools Everywhere."

"To talk at a distance, when you have nothing to say, though you were ever so near; to go fast from this place to that, with nothing to do either at one or the other; these are powers certainly. . . . Only, since you are already such brave merchants, show me at least one or two places where you are happier."

It has been half a century and more since Ruskin challenged his contemporaries to produce even some scant evidence to show that science makes folks happier. (Ruskin died in 1900) And nobody could dig up any such evidence. Now, after all these years of "The Century of Progress," the evidence that human beings are advanced toward happiness seems to be even scarcer.

Missionary Will Speak Sunday at Clinton Avenue

JOHN SKILLMAN

A Methodist missionary on furlough from Japan, John Skillman, will be the guest preacher at Clinton Avenue Methodist Church, 122 Clinton avenue, Sunday during the regular worship service at 10:50 a. m.

Mr. Skillman, who was born at Norwich, has studied at Rutgers University, the University of Minnesota, and at Syracuse University. He holds the BA and MA degrees from the latter institution and is at the present time matriculating at Syracuse for the Ph.D. degree in Education.

Mrs. Skillman, also a native New Yorker, will accompany her husband and will address the combined Sunday school at 9:45 a. m.

She is a graduate of Oxford Academy High School and holds the RN degree from the Kahler School of Nursing which is affiliated with the Mayo Clinic at Rochester, Minn. Both Mr. and Mrs. Skillman will speak and show pictures of their work in Japan at a special meeting of the Youth Fellowship to be held at 3 p. m.

These young missionaries have spent five years as teachers at Aoyama Gakuin University in Tokyo. Mr. Skillman was an instructor in the English department of the Literature College. He served on the editorial staff of the Japanese Christian Yearbook in 1955 and was the editor of the same book in 1956. Mrs. Skillman is the co-author of a book published in Japan. She taught American Cooking in the Women's Junior College and English Composition in the University. The Skillmans have three children: Alan, 5 (adopted); Jenny Lynn, 3; and Ted Martin, 13 months.

Arrangements for the visit of the young missionary couple to Clinton Avenue Church have been made by the local Committee on Missions whose chairman is Mrs. Kenneth Tutwiler. Other members include Mrs. Clayton Smith, Mrs. Harold Francis, Mrs. Louis Bruno, Mrs. Henry Cooley, Mrs. Robert Burt, Richard Chatham and Dr. Claude Walston. Mrs. Tutwiler and Dr. Walston will take part in the worship service at 10:50 a. m. The service will be in charge of the minister of the church, the Rev. Dr. Clyde Herbert Snell.

The public is cordially invited to these services. The worship service will be broadcast over WKNY from 11 a. m. to 12 m.

Cancels Services

New Apostolic Church, 164 Elmendorf street has canceled services this Sunday. The pastor, the Rev. H. Hagenah and the congregation are attending district services at Clifton High School, Clifton, N. J. at 10:30 a. m. service will be made available at a later date.

This same group of pastors is making plans to charter several busses to attend and support the Billy Graham Crusade at Madison Square Garden in New York city.

EMILY POST — SATURDAY...
TRYING ON FRIEND'S NEW HAT

A reader writes: "I would like your advice on the following matter: Whenever I buy a new hat, a friend of mine will always ask if she may try it on to see if the color or the shape looks well on her. I have always been very fussy about my hats and do not like anyone else trying them on. Isn't it improper to ask to try on another person's hat, and how can I refuse without offending her?"

No one but a really intimate friend should ask to try on your hat. But if an acquaintance should ask you, "May I try this on?" you could not possibly refuse without offending.

Going to a Wake

Dear Mrs. Post: Who is actually required to attend a wake? Is it necessary for a person to go to the wake of one he does not know but who is a relative of a neighbor? My next door neighbor recently lost her brother. He lived in this town but was a stranger to me. Neither I nor anyone in my family went to the wake and I understand she is very much hurt because none did. I would appreciate hearing from you on this matter.

Answer: If your neighbor is a close friend and you knew of her brother's passing, it would have been no more than right for you to go. The fact that you did not know him personally should not have kept you from going. It is your sympathy for her that takes you.

The Ring Bearer's Pillow

Dear Mrs. Post: My fiancé's nephew is to be ring bearer at our forthcoming wedding and I would like to know if I am to furnish the white satin pillow he will carry the ring on, or is it furnished by his parents along with his clothes?

Answer: This is always considered a wedding detail and therefore should be furnished by your parents.

Mrs. Post is sorry she cannot answer personal mail, but if you are planning to have a small home wedding and would like to know how to decorate, you will find her leaflet E-8, "Today's Typical Wedding," helpful. RECEIVES WATCH FOR PREDICTION—Frederic Snyder, 34 Lucas avenue, lecturer and world traveler, is wearing a new "electronic" wrist watch presented to him by the Hamilton Watch Co., Lancaster, Pa., as an award for a prediction he made back in 1950. He told the annual Chamber of Commerce dinner in the home of the watch firm that words ending in "ies" such as atomics and electronics would mean advances in the industry. Early this year, Hamilton announced the world's first watch powered by an "energizer" comparable in size to a shirt cuff button (as shown in photo). The gold-plated power unit runs the watch, the company says, for more than 12 hours. The mainspring is entirely eliminated.

Heart Suit Traps South

By OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service

Today's hand is one of the most interesting of the Intercollegiate championships.

The normal bidding is for South to open with one no-trump in third seat, whereupon North should jump to three no-trump.

West will open his fourth best spade and North's ten will hold the trick. South will count up to eight tricks in several ways but will note that he is one short of game. His best play is to try to sneak a heart trick so he will play a heart from dummy; preferably the jack.

East must go right up with the ace and play a second spade. West must duck this trick.

Now East and West will have made their par, which is to beat the three no-trump contract one trick.

If South goes after the diamond suit at trick two, East will get the lead and West will again duck the second spade. South will run the rest of the diamonds and West must discard his hearts in order to retain the club stopper and all the spades.

If South goes after the clubs, West will probably get the lead. In this case he must lead a second low spade so that when East gets in he will still be able to lead the suit to West.

Godwin's Upsets Sickler's, 89-68, in Poughkeepsie Tourney

Upholstery Five Wins Way Into Semifinal Monday

Godwin's Upholstery ousted high-riding Sickler's Delivery from the Hudson Valley basketball tournament, 89-68, last night at the Poughkeepsie YMCA.

In the first game of the quarter-final round doubleheader, Van Voorhis Lumber of Fishkill nipped Beacon Mi-Ro, 70-60, on a last second basket by Art Kalaka.

Last night's winners will play in the feature semi-final game Monday. The opener pits Newburgh Economy Cleaners against Staatsburg American Legion. Finals are Wednesday.

Easy Win
Godwin's took the upset victory with surprising ease. They grabbed an early lead and never gave it up against the Siena College-lined club.

A tremendous team effort, plus some hot shooting featured the sparkling win. A tight zone on the half-court court also figured in Sickler's debacle.

The Delivermen made only one determined drive. They whittled the lead down to seven points, (64-57) at the three quarter mark, but a 10-0 spree at the outset of the final period locked it up for Godwin's.

Carpouzis High
George Carpozis paced the winner's scoring with 20 points. Bill DuBois notched 19, Dick Terlinger 13, Bud Smith 12 and Andy Juhl 10.

Jack Carroll, who played at Manhattan, topped everyone with 26. Frank Connolly, this year's Siena captain, hit 14 and Junior Kolokowski 11.

Godwin's raced to a 23-14 first quarter lead and boosted it to 47-30 at halftime. Sickler's spurred for 27 to Godwin's 17 in the next session, but that was its final gasp.

The first game was a thriller-drama, especially in the late stages. Beaton led coming down to the wire, but Clem Caprara's shot jump shot knotted the count at 68-68 with less than 10 seconds to go. Kalaka's winning shot was in the air when the buzzer sounded.

Simpson Misses ABC Perfect Game

Fourth Worth, Tex., March 23 (AP)—Cecil Simpson of Tulsa, Okla., last night came near to shooting the first perfect game in the American Bowling Congress tournament since 1935.

Simpson, the chairman of the ABC's finance and budget committee, fired 10 straight strikes last night as he competed in the open team event. On the eleven ball he came in slightly high, leaving the 6 and 10 pins intact. He missed the two pins wide on the inside, failing to convert.

His 286 is the high score in the tournament thus far. Vic Giromini of Syracuse, N. Y., fired a 290 for the high line in last year's ABC at Rochester, N. Y.

Myron Erickson, Racine, Wis., fired the last ABC perfect game at the 1955 event in Fort Wayne, Ind.

Cage Benefit Set For Onteora Gym

The Olive Square Club in conjunction with the Onteora Central school athletic association will sponsor a doubleheader basketball program March 29, according to an announcement by Lillian Phillips of Mt. Tremper.

The twin bill is slated for the Boiceville gym with the first game getting underway at 7:30 p. m. Proceeds from the affair will be donated to Onteora's scholarship fund.

Two Kingston aggregations are scheduled to play the Onteora Alumni and a collection of Phoenicia all-stars.

Kansas Pick Over Tar Heels

Kansas City, March 23 (AP)—Can Kansas and Wilt (The Stilt) Chamberlain crack the 31-game winning streak and fabulous luck of North Carolina's self-termed "team of destiny?"

That question will be answered tonight when the nation's No. 1 and 2 basketball teams clash in the final of the National Collegiate (NCAA) basketball tournament at the Municipal Auditorium.

It will be the first time since 1949, when top-seeded Kentucky beat second-ranked Oklahoma A & M, that the two top teams in the Associated Press poll have met for the NCAA title.

Kansas, although ranked second behind the unbeaten North Carolina squad, rules a 3-point favorite.

The championship game is scheduled to start at 10 p. m. (EST) following a consolation contest between last night's semi-final losers, Michigan State and San Francisco.

North Carolina, twice within a breath of defeat, weathered three overtime periods to turn back a big, tough Michigan State team 74-70. Kansas, with the seven-foot Chamberlain dunking the ball regularly crushed San Francisco 80-56.

Lucky To Win

Frank McGuire, a Brooklyn Irishman who coaches the North Carolina squad—which has four Irish boys in the starting lineup—said, "We were lucky. Ordinarily, nine times out of ten we would have lost a game like this. But we've been playing like a team of destiny all year."

The experts feel the Tar Heel's luck may be stretched a bit thin when they encounter Chamberlain, the beanpole Negro sophomore from Philadelphia who can reach within 6 inches of the rim of the basket standing flat-footed, who can jump 12½ feet on a normal jump, and who takes 13 feet in a single stride.

The game is a 10,000 sellout. Forty thousand ticket hunters were turned away.

Berrios Beats Costa on Verdict In Tourney Bout

New York, March 23 (AP)—Aggressive Miguel Berrios chased fleetfooted Carmelo Costa of the featherweight elimination tournament and predicted he would do the same to Hogan (Kid) Bassey if the Nigerian gets on a bicycle in their Washington fight, April 26.

"I have never seen this Bassey, but I only hope he will make a fight," said the pit-sized, 24-year-old Puerto Rican. "If he doesn't I will catch him like I caught Costa. Costa doesn't want to fight. He runs. To be champion you must fight."

Vows To Cop Crown

Motherless when he was three months old, the lion-hearted little fellow, who stands only 52, vowed "I will win the championship so that my four kids will have all the things and the education that I didn't have."

Although he was the aggressor throughout and floored Costa in the 10th round, the mighty mite won only by split decision in the television 12-rounder at Madison Square Garden last night. Divided though it was, the win moved Miguel into the semifinals of the tourney to decide a successor to retired featherweight champion Sandy Saddler.

The winner of the Berrios-Bassey bout in Washington will meet France's European champion, Cherif Hamia, for the title in May, probably at Syracuse, N. Y. Bassey, who never has fought in the U. S., defends his British Empire 126-pound crown against Percy Lewis at Nottingham, England, April 1. He beat Lewis before but an upsets could gum up the tournament.

Vote Of Officials

Judge Harold Barnes (8-4) and Judge Artie Aidala voted for Berrios while referee Harry Kessler cast the minority vote for Costa, 7-4-1. Aidala called it even in rounds, 6-6, but gave Berrios the edge on points, 7-6. The AP had Berrios in front, 8-4.

The knockdown in the contest proved the difference. Aidala awarded Berrios two points for the round. He gave the winners of the other 11 rounds only one point.

It was a close fight until the decisive 10th with Berrios always in pursuit of his elusive, 22-year-old rival.

Each weighed 126 pounds, one under the division limit.

Harold Broskie paced the keggers on the city lanes last evening with a scorching 667 series.

DUSO All-Stars in KBT Spotlight

Face Dover Plains Sunday in Opener

Stewart Field Meets Stamford in Nightcap

Youth gets its fling as star-spangled Duso Sales Co. of Kingston collide with Busa All-Stars of Dover Plains in Sunday's first game of a double-header in the Kingston Basketball Tournament. Game time is 7:15 p. m.

In the companion game, Stamford (Conn.) Knights of Columbus takes on Stewart Field of Newburgh at the municipal auditorium.

The Kingston team will highlight in its lineup youth DUSO League stars Jim Merritt and Bill Marx (both of Middletown), John Lawrence (Libertyville), Mike Tannenbaum (Elmhurst) and Maroon stalwarts Bob Smith, Tony Grimaldi and Richie Strong.

There is a slim chance that Port Jervis' 1-2 scoring punch of Alex Oswowick and Eddie Mack might show. John Mustion, Rondout Valley Central's brilliant pivot, is also on the squad but may not see action because of a leg injury.

Players Definitely Set

Merritt, Marx and Tannenbaum, the out of town players, have definitely indicated that they will appear. Lawrence is almost a sure bet to come, while the three local stars are all set.

Merritt, Tannenbaum, Lawrence, and Oswowick were voted All-DUSO a few weeks ago. Smith and Marx made the second team, while Grimaldi received honorable mention.

Mustion was named on the UCAI all-star first team, receiving 103 out of a possible 105 votes. Strong played for the Maroons last year at center and is now home from prep school.

The windup matches two reportedly strong outfits. The Knights were here last year and made a good showing before getting ousted.

College Talent

They feature plenty of College talent from their section. Three players — Tom Deneen, Dick Nevelle and Mike Tozzoli — were members of New Haven Teachers College. Their biggest man is Gil Raffard, a 6-8 giant who formerly played for Hampton College. Jackie Robie, all-state performer, Joe Riggs of North Carolina, and playmaker Jack Smyth from Fairfield University round out the squad.

Stewart Field, too, boasts men with college experience. The Jets' biggest performer is 6-7 Don Biblack, ex-Tennessee A & I College luminary. Bill Deegan, who played freshman ball at La Salle College, Jim McDuff of Bridgeport U., Win McGuire of Elon (N. C.) Jr. College, Hank Gillis of Michigan State, Tony Tabako of Rutgers and Maryland's Charley Butler complete the squad.

16-2 Record

The Airmen bring in a highly impressive 16-2 won-lost record and will be making their first tourney appearance here.

Four teams have already bitten the dust in the 12-team merry-go-round—Otisville, Richards Sporting Goods of Pearl River, Newburgh Economy Cleaners and Port Jervis Culver Motors.

Survivors include the Kingston Stars, Pine Plains Bombardiers, Staatsburg American Legion and Van Voorhis Lumber of Fishkill.

Bradley 6-Point Favorite in NIT

New York, March 23 (AP)—Point-guard Bradley (210 in two games) matches its shooting accuracy against hit-and-run Memphis State today in the final of the National Invitation Basketball Tournament at Madison Square Garden.

Bradley is rated a 6-point favorite in the game, which is scheduled for national television at 2 p. m. (EST) by CBS. When the title is decided Temple and St. Bonaventure will meet for third place. That won't be televised.

This not only is Memphis State's first appearance in the NIT, but it is the first time the club ever has played in New York.

"It's always nice to be the underdog," said State coach, Bob Vanatta, who, incidentally, built up the Bradley team he now must face before moving to Memphis last summer.

"That's right," he grinned. "Bradley has great depth, team speed and height. It is as good a rebounding club as there is in the country."

Chuck Orsborn, Bradley's coach, who was Vanatta's assistant until the latter pulled up stakes, wasn't happy at the favorite's role accorded his team.

Seniors Golf Final

St. Augustine, Fla., March 23 (AP)—Leon R. Sikes, medalist from West Palm Beach, faced Frank D. Ross of West Hartford Conn., today in the final 18-hole round of the American Seniors golf tournament over the 6,485-yard Ponce de Leon golf course.

Against Open

New York (NEA)—The International Lawn Tennis Association thrice rejected a proposal for an Open tournament in the United States.

Boudreau Sizes Up Club

Yankee Castoffs Figure Big in Chances of A's

(By The Associated Press)

Kansas City manager Lou Boudreau isn't bothered by the tag his club carries:

"The Yanks' American League farm team."

The A's have no fewer than a dozen players who at one time or another were under contract to the New Yorkers.

"I don't care what they call us so long as we improve," the handsome pilot said after yesterday's Yanks-KC game at West Palm Beach, Fla. "In fact, it wouldn't hurt us if some of the Yanks' class rubbed off on us. It's better than being a last place team."

Blanked by Yanks

Boudreau's operatives had just been licked, 3-0, by the Bombers, but just the same he said he thought the A's were going to improve because of their hitting. He also is high on Milt Crawford, who hit .314 for Birmingham last year and came to the A's as a throw-in in the big mid-winter deal.

But he's worried about:

1. The defense (bad).

2. The pitching (wild).

3. Irv Noren (knees still won't permit him to run).

4. Harry Simpson (102 RBIs last year, out with serious muscle pull and probably won't start season).

No matter how you look at it, the A's appear to be all the Yanks need. Off-season it's trading. In-season, it's playing. Until yesterday the world champions had lost two in a row and had looked forlorn in both outings.

Four-Hit Shutout

But Tom Sturdivant and rookie Jim Depalo combined to whitewash the A's on four hits. For Sturdivant, this was his third time on the mound. In a total of 14 innings, he has given up just eight hits and no runs.

While Boudreau was contemplating his problems, manager Birdie Tebbets of the Cincinnati Redlegs had cause to rejoice. The Redlegs whipped the Detroit Tigers, 2-1, in Lakeland.

Veteran Johnny Klippstein went all the way for the Redlegs, to become one of the first two major leaguers to go nine innings this spring, and Ted Kluzewski wrapped it up with a seventh inning single following a triple by Smokey Burgess.

Big Klu was bothered most of last season by a hip injury (which didn't prevent him from hitting .302, batting in 102 runs and crashing 35 homers), and there was some worry around the Redlegs' lair that it might break out again.

Klu's First Start

This was Klu's first start with the "A" team, except for some pinch hitting chores, he reported that the hip felt as good as new.

Elsewhere, the Milwaukee Braves edged the Pittsburgh Pirates, 4-3, in 10 innings; the Philadelphia Phillies licked the St. Louis Cardinals, also by 4-3; the Chicago Cubs had to go 11 innings to beat the Baltimore Orioles, 5-2; the New York Giants defeated the Cleveland Indians, 8-4; Washington whipped the Brooklyn Dodgers 7-2 with Camilo Pascual going the route for the Senators and San Francisco of the Pacific Coast League vanquished the Boston Red Sox 5-2.

Washer Wins at Net

Cairo, Egypt, March 23 (AP)—Belgium's Philippe Washer and Sweden's Sven Davidson won their semi-final matches and qualified for Egypt's international tennis tournament final. Washer defeated Poland's Wladislav Skonecki, 8-6, 8-6, HOLLOW REEDS: Some people who use this expression might wonder how it began, but the explanation is simple. A custom among boys in the 19th century was to make whistles out of smooth clean sticks or reeds that grew in the fields. If the inside was hollow and clean, it would make a good whistle.

Fights With Tail

Contrary to popular belief, porcupines do not "shoot" their quills in self-defense. The notion probably arises from the animal's habit of fighting back, when cornered, with lightning strokes of its dart-studded tail.

Town Notes

Mt. Tremper, March 22—Henry Hoffman, lifelong resident of Mount Tremper, died Sunday. Incapacitated by arthritis for several years, he was a familiar sight in the restaurant operated by his family on Route 28 and was held in high esteem by local residents and the many sportsmen and vacationers who stopped each year to renew their acquaintance and visit with him.

Word has been received from Mr. and Mrs. Ansel Perkins, who left early in November to spend the winter in Florida, that they are on their way home again.

Mrs. Edward Logan of Lake Hill and Mrs. Lennart Olsen of Willow were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Torres Tuesday.

Mrs. Hope Robertson, Mrs. Charles Weidner and Mrs. Ernest J. Gardner were Albany visitors Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Townsend were luncheon guests of Mr. and Mrs. Francis J. Phillips Saturday.

Miss Christina Gardner celebrated her sixth birthday with a family party at her home. Sharing the festivities were Mr. and Mrs. Burt W. Gardner, Mrs. Hope Robertson, Mrs. Arthur Smith and daughters, Victoria and Beth; Mr. and Mrs. Francis J. Phillips, Miss Judith Gardner and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest J. Gardner.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cuer of Stone Ridge, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Schoen and children, Robert and Victoria, of Kingston, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kelsey of Phoenicia were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Norman D. Wilber Sunday.

Mrs. Loren Buley is a patient at the Benedictine Hospital where it is reported she is making a good recovery.

Roy Hoffman spent the week-end with his family, returning to Westchester Community College, White Plains, where he is in his senior year, Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert C. Winne, Sr. celebrated their 37th wedding anniversary Friday.

Mrs. Kenneth Umhey entertained a group of friends at her home on Saturday evening. Guests present included Mrs. Roger Winne, Mrs. Howard Umhey, Mrs. Crystal Simone, Mrs. Bert C. Winne, Sr., Mrs. Edgar Hudler, Mrs. Richard Byron, Mrs. Callaghan and Mrs. Mertz. After an evening of games co-hostesses Mrs. Otto Umhey and Mrs. Kenneth Umhey served coffee and cake to their guests.

Henry Torres was one of three delegates sent by Rotman Manufacturing Company, Inc. of Woodstock to the Institute of Radio Engineers National Convention in New York City Tuesday.

Church Notes

Shandaken Reformed Church, Rev. Harvey I. Todd, pastor—Worship service 9:30 a. m. with the title of the sermon for Sunday, "Round Pegs in Square Holes." The flowers on the altar will be in memory of Henry Hoffman.

Sunday school 10:30 a. m. with the following teachers: Mrs. Harry Carle, Mrs. Robert Kraus and Mrs. Richard Kahil.

Rosendale Church Show Set Tonight

Parishioners and friends of St. Peter's Church, Rosendale, will hold a St. Patrick's night celebration in the church hall today at 8 p. m., featuring a program of talented entertainers and Harry Maisenhelder's Orchestra. Joe Stein is the director.

Among the instrumentalists, soloists and dancers are Lesley Barringer, Teri DeBrosky, Barbara Hughes, Marianne Erceg, Maureen Steeley, Jean Tucker, Christina Roddy, Maureen Judson, Cathleen O'Leary, Peter Mathews, Betty Lamb, Marie Moran, Karen Brown, Jimmy Fay, Robert E. Mathews, Joe Brophy, Jack Carter and "The Little Carters," Ellen, Christine, Johnny and Anita, Jimmy and Timmy Weber, Carol and Carston Martinson and Bill La-Voi.

Quints Born, Four Die
Roosendaal, Netherlands, March 23 (P)—Quintuplets—three boys and two girls—were born today to a Roosendaal mother but four of them died. Doctors held little hope that the fifth—a boy—would survive. Dr. J. F. M. Auping of the Roosendaal "Charitas" Hospital said the mother's condition was satisfactory. He declined to identify her.

Bevan to Make Tour
London, March 23 (P)—Aneurin Bevan, the Labor party's foreign affairs spokesman in Parliament, left London airport today for a five-week tour of India, Pakistan and the Middle East. He described his trip as a private fact-finding visit.

23 of Saugerties 1956 Class Enter Higher Learning

Twenty-three members of the graduating class of 1956 of Saugerties High School are now pursuing some form of advanced education, it was reported today by Dr. Grant D. Morse, superintendent of Saugerties schools.

Of that number, 17 are attending a college or university, three are training to become nurses, two are in attendance at a business school, and one is pursuing an apprentice training program.

Many in College
Those who are at a college or university include Peter Banks, Cornell University; David Cunningham, Rider College; Gerard Curley, Albany College of Pharmacy; Martin Dale, Clarkson College of Technology; Carol Dean, Albany State Teachers College; Roger Dordick, Colgate University; Paul Finch, Missionary Training Institute; William Hanna, Rider College; Robert Hanson, Rider College; John Kerin, Siena College; Aletta Martin, Oneonta State Teachers College; William Mc Cormick, Ithaca College; Edward Montano, Manhattan College; Edward Stukuls and Voldemars Stukuls, University of Connecticut; Donna Vozdik, Cazenovia Junior College; John Wey, Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute.

Mary Jane Dixon, Barbara Granwehr and Patricia Hackett are at the Benedictine Hospital School of Nursing where they are training to become registered nurses.

Attending the Spencerian-Moran Business School are Vivian Linden and Harriet Whitney.

Hans Gunderud is at the International Business Machines Corporation where he is taking an apprentice training course.

If there is any other member of the 1956 class who is receiving advanced education who has been inadvertently overlooked, the person is asked to inform the director of guidance, Dr. Morse.

Hafer Observes 30th Anniversary With C-H Company
Harry Hafer, 56 Grand street, was honored this week on his 30th anniversary of service with the Central Hudson Gas and Electric Corporation.

He was cited for his long service and received a service emblem from company President Ernest R. Acker at ceremonies in the utility's general office in Poughkeepsie.

Mr. Hafer joined Central Hudson on March 22, 1927 as a laborer. He was promoted to garage helper in June of that year and to clerk mechanic's helper in 1929.

He served as a garage mechanic from August, 1937 until November, 1945 when he entered the U. S. Army. He returned from his military leave of absence, during which he saw service in this country and in Europe, in December, 1945 and began an assignment with the company as a mechanic.

Mr. Hafer is a member of the Central Hudson Employees' Quarter-Century Club.

Four Men Are Jailed For Gold Smuggling
New York, March 23 (P)—Guy Vincent, the French husband of actress Betsy Von Furstenberg, and three other men have been imprisoned on their plea of guilty in operating a multi-million-dollar gold smuggling racket.

The 36-year-old Vincent, whose full name is Guy Vincent Chastant de La Maisonneuve, and the blonde actress were married in 1954. They have a two-year-old daughter.

Others sentenced with Vincent by Federal Judge Thomas F. Murphy were: Joseph J. Boyle, 51, former New York state boxing referee who headed a jewelry manufacturing firm; Cedric Janjen, 40, a scrap dealer of Manhattan; and E. Ray Trenary, 45, a former bank officer of (41 Barra street) Interlaken, N. J., and partner of Boyle.

Vincent was given a year in jail; Boyle drew 18 months, and Janjen and Trenary six months each.

Famed Dancer Loses Both Legs

Milan, Italy, March 23 (P)—Anna Mariani, 29, loved to dance. Twice she teamed with Carlo Carenini to win the "world dancing championship" at an annual competition in San Remo.

Today Anna was struck by a locomotive at the Greco railway station near Milan. Both legs were amputated.

Hercules Safety Record Praised, Award Received

The Port Ewen plant of Hercules Powder Co. won its second major award Thursday for an outstanding safety record.

On completion of the workday March 21 the employees there finished almost three years without a tabular last time injury. Congratulations came in a telegram from J. M. Martin, Wilmington, Del., general manager of the explosives department of the firm.

It said: "We wish to send congratulations of the entire explosives department to every employee at Port Ewen for winning the general manager's safety award for the second time."

Your outstanding record of over three and a half million hours of injury-free operation is a source of inspiration to everyone, and we look for Port Ewen to continue its leadership in safety performance."

$1,500,000 Fire Hits Nevada City
Elko, Nev., March 23 (P)—Fire destroyed a half-block of the business section in this northeastern Nevada community last night with loss estimated at $1,500,000. There were no reported casualties.

Flames erupted in the kitchen of Stockmen's Hotel and within 45 minutes had enveloped the three-story brick and frame building.

Blaze Spreads
Guests fled through the lobby and down firemen's ladders as the fire raged out of control and into nearby night clubs, a garage, a drug store and restaurants.

Firemen, with the aid of national guardsmen and police, confined the flames to the half-block.

By midnight, Elko County Sheriff J. C. Harris said the fire was under control and there were no casualties.

Power Lines Cut
Power lines were cut by the fire and much of downtown Elko was plunged into darkness.

Dick Toothman, hotel manager, said 212 members of the Future Farmers of America were attending a banquet on the main floor when the fire broke out.

Toothman said a considerable amount of money was saved from a casino in the hotel building, but much of the silver was left in cash registers and safes.

Plattekill
Plattekill, March 23—The first and second degrees of initiation for candidates seeking membership in Plattekill Grange No. 923, will be conferred at a postponed meeting of the organization Saturday evening, March 30.

A fish and chips supper is planned for Wednesday evening, April 17.

Local members of the Plattekill Lions Club, with members in Modena, Clintondale, Ardonia and Tuckers Corners, are planning to attend the third annual smorgasbord, to be served by a committee of club members Saturday evening, March 30, at Oddo's House, between Clintondale and Highland. The supper will be served at 6:30 p. m.

Officers nominated for the annual election of the Plattekill Fire Department Thursday evening, April 4, at the firehouse were as follows: Chief, Lester Upright, Kenneth Birdsall; 1st assistant chief, J. Kellar, Kenneth Birdsall; 2nd assistant chief, John Edler, Raymond Hoppenstedt; president, Myron E. Foster; vice-president, Martin E. Feldt; secretary, Charles Franklin; assistant secretary, Ralph Garcia; Morris Jacobowitz; financial secretary, Earl Hasbrouck; Ernest Waite; treasurer, Vernard B. Wager; sergeant-at-arms, A. Baer; trustee, Morris Jacobowitz.

The annual dinner of the firemen has been set for Saturday, April 27 at Villa Garcia, with Onufy Orlovsky as chairman. Representatives of other fire companies throughout the area will be invited guests. The new fire alarm system will be in operation at an early date, it was reported.

District Reorganization Due Largely to 1940 Master Plan

(Note—this is the second in a series of articles on the proposed Greater Kingston Area Consolidation written by Norman Hammond of Lake Katrine and edited by four others on a committee interested in presenting an explanation about linking rural districts to the city school system.)

The so-called Rapp-Covdett Committee, established by the State Legislature in 1940, prepared a report based on six years of study and deliberation entitled, "The Master Plan for School District Reorganization." It is this report, published in 1947, which is now familiarly known as the "Master Plan." It provides the framework under which we are organized today. It has been modified as conditions change and will be modified again this year, as the legislature has appropriated $55,000 to pay for the necessary meetings and investigation. The bill authorizing the latest modification to this Master Plan reads in part, "Recommendations shall be principally directed toward the reorganization of areas in and around the city school districts of cities having less than 125,000 inhabitants, the reorganization of the remaining common and union-free school districts not included in such urban and suburban areas, and the reorganization of the smaller central school districts."

Troy Man Called Serious After Leap From Train

Hudson, N. Y., March 23 (P)—James Millington, 27, today was reported in serious condition in Columbia Memorial Hospital after what police believe was a plunge from a speeding railroad train.

His address was given tentatively as 251 Pawling avenue, Troy.

Millington was found in a ditch near New York Central railroad tracks last night near Tivoli, about 15 miles south of here, about two hours after a man disappeared from a west-bound passenger train.

Police said the man who disappeared from the train apparently had jumped through a men's room window after smashing it with a bottle. The train was stopped and a brief search was conducted.

The train, the upstate special from New York, had to resume the trip because another train was due on the same track.

Barbershop Group To Enter Contest Set at Johnstown
Twenty-two men from the Kingston area will travel to Johnstown, March 30 to compete with choruses from eight other chapters of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barbershop Quartet Singing in America, Inc. for the chance to enter the Northeast district contest at Montreal, Canada, May 18.

The society is a fabulous singing organization, now some 19 years old, spread over the entire United States and Canada with some 26,000 members in 600 chapters. In its ranks are men of every variety and character but all with one common denominator. They love to sing, or listen to, barbershop harmony, that exclusively American form of music with thrilling and fascinating chord progressions.

Sung only a cappella, any accompaniment is as out of place as drums with a string quartet. The chorus is directed by Ron Gibbons of Mt. Marion. The following men are members of the chorus:

Clarence Coogan, Ronald P. Gibbons, Fred Ellersick, Gerry Griffith, Richard L. Fletcher, W. M. McMillan, S. L. Fodor, Warren F. Neals, Jr., Norman H. Franz, Ken A. Wheatley, Rolf Goercke, John Hurd, William A. Lahl, Thomas Seche, Edgar H. Meurs, Charles VanVoorhis, Lowell Popp, John E. McNamara, Jack K. Ashton, James Battley, Cecil A. Branson and A. P. Arnett.

They frown on any association of modern barber-shops with a bar, lamp-post, or "bottle-harmony," for barbershop harmony is close, requiring continuous tone adjustment by acute ear sense for accuracy, expression, balance, and blend.

The Mid-Hudson Chapter likes visitors who enjoy singing popular songs, or merely listening to others sing. Nearly every Chapter in the Society's international membership has a few non-singing members who come just to hear what they can't express.

If you like to sing, or just like singing, and are an American male of good character, you owe it to yourself to get an invitation from some of the men listed here to attend one of their meetings, Mr. Gibbons said.

NATO Is Hopeful Of Mediating Cyprus Dispute

Paris, March 23 (P)—A NATO spokesman said today the North Atlantic Treaty Organization has not given up efforts toward mediating the Cyprus dispute despite the negative response toward such action from the island's Greek-Cypriot population and from Greece.

The spokesman asserted that Greece's response did not completely close the door on NATO intervention.

Lord Ismay, NATO secretary general, has offered his good offices in the Cyprus issue and Britain and Turkey earlier this week accepted the proposal.

Want Direct Dealings
Greek officials declared in public statements that Britain should deal directly with Greek Cypriot representatives in the controversy.

Cyprus' Greek Cypriot majority is demanding an end to British rule over the eastern Mediterranean island and union of Cyprus with Greece. The Turkish minority on the island opposes such a move.

Greek Cypriot underground fighters have been waging a violent campaign to oust the British.

Lord Ismay offered to help resolve the issue under authority the NATO ministers gave him last December to intervene in disputes if all parties involved agree.

U. S. Culture Is Given Praise by Russian Writer

Moscow, March 23 (P)—Ilya Ehrenburg, one of the Soviet Union's top writers, came out today in a surprisingly warm defense of American culture.

Ehrenburg assailed the often heard claim in the Communist world that the United States has failed to make original contributions to the arts and sciences.

In a letter to the Literary Gazette, Ehrenburg declared that to smear American culture or the culture contributions of any country runs counter to Soviet educational aims. He said it also does no service to Soviet policy and to the "deep love of peace of our people."

"One should not impinge upon the great values of which every people are justly proud," the letter said.

Ehrenburg also assailed the Literary Gazette, the organ of Soviet writers, for publishing a highly critical account of American life by Alexander Kazembek. Kazembek previously has been identified as a former White Russian guard who returned recently to Russia after living 15 years in the United States and teaching at Connecticut colleges.

Navy Airmen Set Unofficial Mark In Coast Flight

Sanford, Fla., March 23 (P)—Just "to add a little spice to a routine ferrying job," three Navy airmen set an unofficial cross country record time of 3 hours 39 minutes and 24 seconds on a flight from California to Florida yesterday.

Lt. (J.G.) Ralph S. Barnett, the pilot, said he made no effort to push the twin-jet A3D Navy attack bomber to its maximum and didn't know he bettered the record until he sat down to dinner in the officers' mess at Sanford Naval Air Station.

8 Minutes Faster
While the record bettered by eight minutes the time made in January by an Air Force B47 it will not be official because timing arrangements were not made in advance with the International Federation which certifies such records.

Barnett and his crewmen, airmen Machinists L. F. Trope and W. J. Prout, took off from International Airport at Burbank, Calif., at 12:16:30 p. m. (EST) and winged over Miami Marine Corps Air Station at 3:55:54. They averaged above 640 miles an hour.

"We figured it would take about 10 minutes longer than it did," Barnett said. He signified in the flight plan he planned to try for the record "to add a little spice to a routine ferrying job."

Saugerties Faculty Member Resigns
Miss Eleanor Witherill, a member of the Saugerties Central School faculty, who has taught in this system for the past five years, has resigned her position here effective July 1. She will accept a position as supervisor of elementary music in Danvers, Mass.

Briefly Told

Albany, N. Y., March 23 (P)—Policemen who ignored Edward McAffrey's illegally parked automobile after spotting a ticket already on it didn't know the tag was one McAffrey had found.

But an Albany citizen observed the McAffrey technique for several days and described it in a letter to Albany Traffic Court. The motorist, a Schenectady resident, pleaded guilty yesterday to a charge of contempt of court and was fined $25.

Ithaca, N. Y., March 23 (P)—Telephone service between Ithaca and points north was cut off for six hours yesterday when a ditch-digging machine accidentally severed an underground cable.

Binghamton, N. Y., March 23 (P)—Arlin G. Tyler, 35, of near-by Marathon, has been sentenced to 23 years to life in Attica prison for the fatal shooting of Mrs. Elizabeth Gilbert, a former girl friend.

State Supreme Court Justice Daniel J. McAvoy of State Supreme Court pronounced sentence yesterday. Tyler had pleaded guilty to a reduced charge of second-degree manslaughter. He said he was drunk at the time of the jealousy shooting last Nov. 15.

Cayuga, N. Y., March 23 (P)—Raymond Weaver, about 75, was injured fatally yesterday when he was run over by a farm tractor from which he had fallen while working in a field.

Solvay, N. Y., March 23 (P)—Margaret Gronau, 4, was burned to death last night when fire swept through the kitchen of the family apartment in this Syracuse suburb.

Robert Jszinski, a passerby, rescued Fred, 3, and Paul Gronau, 2, after breaking down a door. Police theorized that one of the children had held a newspaper close to a stove and it had burst into flames.

New York, March 23 (P)—Herman Winner, 64, chief clerk of the Bronx County Board of Elections, has been elected county Republican leader.

The 15-man county GOP executive committee unanimously chose him yesterday to succeed John J. Knewitz, who died March 10.

Lyons, N. Y., March 23 (P)—A 40-year-old youth were held today for Wayne county grand jury action on charges of first degree robbery in the $153 holdup of a loan office here Thursday.

At their arraignment yesterday Stephen Carter, 40, of Medina, and John F. Krzeminski, 20, of Orchard Park waited examination. Bail was set at $10,000 for Carter and $5,000 for Krzeminski.

Philadelphia, March 23 (P)—Gordon Dorrance, 66, founder of Dorrance & Co., publishers, died yesterday at his home here.

He was born in Camden, N. Y., and was a veteran of both world wars. He retired with the rank of colonel.

Survivors include his widow and brothers Neil, of Camden, and Henry of Utica, N. Y.

Horsesheds, N. Y., March 23 (P)—John Wildrick, four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wildrick, was killed yesterday when he was struck by an automobile as he was crossing a street near this Chemung county community.

The annual dinner of the firemen has been set for Saturday, April 27 at Villa Garcia, with Onufry Orlovsky as chairman. Representatives of other fire companies throughout the area will be invited guests. The new fire alarm system will be in operation at an early date, it was reported.

The William Feldt and William McAffee families have sold their properties, located south of Tucker's Corners, to out-of-town buyers.

Ernest Waite has been acting storekeeper at DuBois Grimm's general store in Modena, during the latter's vacation in Florida.

Mrs. S. L. Bernard of Poughkeepsie visited her brother, Kenneth Patridge and family, recently.

Miss Ruth Dawes, member of the Ulster County Democratic Women's Club, attended a meeting at the home of Mrs. Harriet Allen Kerr, state committee woman, at New Paltz recently. Plans were formulated for the fourth annual day of political education.

The date of this event will be Saturday, May 25, at Broglie's restaurant, at West Park, with registration commencing at 10 a. m.

Hudson, N. Y., March 23 (AP)—James Millington, 27, today was reported in serious condition in Columbia Memorial Hospital after what police believe was a plunge from a speeding railroad train.

His address was given tentatively as 251 Pawling avenue, Troy.

Millington was found in a ditch near New York Central railroad tracks last night near Tivoli, about 15 miles south of here, about two hours after a man disappeared from a west-bound passenger train.

Police said the man who disappeared from the train apparently had jumped through a men's room window after smashing it with a bottle. The train was stopped and a brief search was conducted.

The train, the upstate special from New York, had to resume the trip because another train was due on the same track.

Barbershop Group To Enter Contest Set at Johnstown

Twenty-two men from the Kingston area will travel to Johnstown, March 30 to compete with choruses from eight other chapters of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barbershop Quartet Singing in America, Inc. for the chance to enter the Northeast district contest at Montreal, Canada, May 18.

The society is a fabulous singing organization, now some 19 years old, spread over the entire United States and Canada with some 26,000 members in 600 chapters. In its ranks are men of every variety and character, but all with one common denominator. They love to sing, or listen to, barbershop harmony, that exclusively American form of music with thrilling and fascinating chord progressions, sung only a cappella, any accompaniment is as out of place as drums with a string quartet.

The chorus is directed by Ron Gibbons of Mt. Marion. The following men are members of the chorus:

Clarence Coogan, Ronald P. Gibbons, Fred Eilersick, Gerry Griffith, Richard L. Fletcher, W. M. McMillan, S. L. Fodor, Warren F. Neals, Jr., Norman H. Franz, Ken A. Wheatley, Rolf Goercke, John Hurd, William A. Lahl, Thomas Seche, Edgar H. Meurs, Charles VanVoorthis, Lowell Popp, John E. McNamara, Jack K. Ashton, James Battley, Cecil A. Branson and A. P. Arneith.

They frown on any association of modern barber-shopping with a bar, lamp-post, or "bottle-harmony," for barbershop harmony is close, requiring continuous tone adjustment by acute ear sense for accuracy, expression, balance, and blend.

The Mid-Hudson Chapter likes visitors who enjoy singing popular songs, or merely listening to others sing. Nearly every Chapter in the Society's international membership has a few non-singing members who come just to hear what they can't express.

If you like to sing, or just like singing, and are an American male of good character, you owe it to yourself to get an invitation from some of the men listed here to attend one of their meetings, Mr. Gibbons said.

Enlarges Districts 8

The Master Plan tends to enlarge the size of all small districts, whether they are common, union free, centralized, or consolidated. A district which has too few children to maintain a school providing a separate teacher and classroom for each grade, or is too poor to raise the tax money to support such a school, cannot provide the education required by our modern civilization and still maintain the element of local control of schools which is basic to our New York educational system. An efficient school district must be large enough to provide a good tax-base, enough resident children to assure reasonable attendance in each grade, enough interested and capable people to provide leadership and control, and enough people of varied outlook on school affairs so that lively consideration will result. It has been said that where all of the people think alike, little thinking is accomplished.

Originals Remain

At one time we had 11,857 school districts in our state. By 1956, the number had been reduced to about 1,700. Most of these 1,700 districts remaining are the original common school districts laid out under the law of 1812. About half of these 1,700 districts no longer operate their own schools.

Already over 100 small districts have consolidated with city school districts under the recommendations of the Master Plan and the provisions of the Enlarged City School District Act of 1952. About 200 other small districts exist which can join small cities under this act and most of these districts will eventually do so. Thirty of the 200 small districts in this category are now included in the proposed Greater Kingston Consolidation.

The next article will discuss the position taken by the Commissioner of Education regarding our proposed consolidation.

Those making the trip were the following club members: Alan Armstrong, John Bennett, Margaret Dunn, Jean DuBois, Harry Dean, Anna D'Ambrosio, Barbara Lang, Elsie Lewin, Erica Laumer, Grace MacNiven, Mary Martino, Albert Notarnicola, Vivian Robinson, Richard Spencer, Harold VanVoorthis, Barbara Ward. Guests of the club included: Peter Amato, John Burns, Sharon Vaughn.

NATO Is Hopeful Of Mediating Cyprus Dispute

Paris, March 23 (AP)—A NATO spokesman said today the North Atlantic Treaty Organization has not given up efforts toward mediating the Cyprus dispute despite the negative response toward such action from the island's Greek-Cypriot population and from Greece.

The spokesman asserted that Greece's response did not completely close the door on NATO intervention.

Lord Ismay, NATO secretary general, has offered his good offices in the Cyprus issue and Britain and Turkey earlier this week accepted the proposal.

Want Direct Dealings

Greek officials declared in public statements that Britain should deal directly with Greek Cypriot representatives in the controversy.

Cyprus' Greek Cypriot majority is demanding an end to British rule over the eastern Mediterranean island and union of Cyprus with Greece. The Turkish minority on the island opposes such a move.

Greek Cypriot underground fighters have been waging a violent campaign to oust the British.

Lord Ismay offered to help resolve the issue under authority the NATO ministers gave him last December to intervene in disputes if all parties involved agree.

U. S. Culture Is Given Praise by Russian Writer

Moscow, March 23 (AP)—Ilya Ehrenburg, one of the Soviet Union's top writers, came out today in a surprisingly warm defense of American culture.

Ehrenburg assailed the often heard claim in the Communist world that the United States has failed to make original contributions to the arts and sciences.

In a letter to the Literary Gazette, Ehrenburg declared that to sneer at American culture or the culture contributions of any country runs counter to Soviet educational aims. He said it also does no service to Soviet policy and to the "deep love of peace of our people."

"One should not impinge upon the great values of which every people are justly proud," the letter said.

Ehrenburg also assailed the Literary Gazette, the organ of Soviet writers, for publishing a highly critical account of American life by Alexander Kazembek. Kazembek previously has been identified as a former White Russian guard who returned recently to Russia after living 15 years in the United States and teaching at Connecticut colleges.

Briefly Told

Albany, N. Y., March 23 (AP)—Policemen who ignored Edward McAffrey's illegally parked automobile after spotting a ticket already on it didn't know the tag was one McAffrey had found.

But an Albany citizen observed the McAffrey technique for several days and described it in a letter to Albany Traffic Court. The motorist, a Schenectady resident, pleaded guilty yesterday to a charge of contempt of court and was fined $25.

Ithaca, N. Y., March 23 (AP)—Telephone service between Ithaca and points north was cut off for six hours yesterday when a ditch-digging machine accidentally severed an underground cable.

Binghamton, N. Y., March 23 (AP)—Arlin G. Tyler, 35, of nearby Marathon, has been sentenced to 23 years to life in Attica prison for the fatal shooting of Mrs. Elizabeth Gilbert, a former girl friend.

State Supreme Court Justice Daniel J. McAvoy of State Supreme Court pronounced sentence yesterday. Tyler had pleaded guilty to a reduced charge of second-degree manslaughter. He said he was drunk at the time of the jealous shooting last Nov. 15.

Cayuga, N. Y., March 23 (AP)—Raymond Weaver, about 75, was injured fatally yesterday when he was run over by a farm tractor from which he had fallen while working in a field.

Solvay, N. Y., March 23 (AP)—Margaret Gronau, 4, was burned to death last night when fire swept through the kitchen of the family apartment in this Syracuse suburb.

Robert Jszinski, a passerby, rescued Fred, 3, and Paul Gronau, 2, after breaking down a door. Police theorized that one of the children had held a newspaper close to a stove and it had burst into flames.

New York, March 23 (AP)—Herman Winner, 64, chief clerk of the Bronx County Board of Elections, has been elected county Republican leader.

The 15-man county GOP executive committee unanimously chose him yesterday to succeed John J. Knewitz, who died March 10.

Lyons, N. Y., March 23 (AP)—A 40-year-old man and a 20-year-old youth were held today for Wayne county grand jury action on charges of first degree robbery in the $153 holdup of a loan office here Thursday.

At their arraignment yesterday Stephen Carter, 40, of Medina, and John F. Krzeminski, 20, of Orchard Park waived examination. Bail was set at $10,000 for Carter and $5,000 for Krzeminski.

Philadelphia, March 23 (AP)—Gordon Dorrance, 66, founder of Dorrance & Co., publishers, died yesterday at his home here.

He was born in Camden, N. Y., and was a veteran of both world wars. He retired with the rank of colonel.

Survivors include his widow and brothers Neil, of Camden, and Henry of Utica, N. Y.

Horseheads, N. Y., March 23 (AP)—John Wildrick, four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wildrick, was killed yesterday when he was struck by an automobile as he was crossing a street near this Chemung county community.
